NATIONAL KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN
CLEVELAND CHAPTER

This investigation is based on information which indicates that the Cleveland National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan (NKKKK) is engaged in activities which could involve a violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 241 (Conspiracy against rights of citizens), Section 245 (Federally protected activities), Civil Rights Act of 1968, or related civil rights statutes.

NATIONAL KNIGHTS OF THE
KU KLUX KLAN, INC. (NKKKK)

The National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc., (NKKKK), was granted a charter in Georgia in 1963 as a "patriotic, secret, social, and benevolent order." The NKKKK, a consolidation of various Klans in southern states, continues to be anti-Negro, anti-Jewish, anti-Catholic, and anti-foreign born.

On July 5, 1974, [ ] a source who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that on July 3, 1974, approximately 12 members and supporters of the Cleveland National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan (NKKKK) ignited a cross in Cleveland Public Square. That same evening, a cross was burned at the corner of West 25th and Detroit Avenues.

During the evening of July 4, 1974, another cross was ignited at Edgewater Park, Cleveland, Ohio.

The source advised that the cross burnings were a result of the NKKKK's intention to demonstrate to the public that the NKKKK continues to be a political force in the Cleveland area.

12 burn cross on Public Square

b6
b7c

About 12 men identifying themselves as members of the Ku Klux Klan burned a 14-foot cross on Public Square at 11:25 last night.

No arrests were made. The Fire Department put out the fire. But Cleveland police said they were not notified of the cross burning, and no arrests were made.

Bob Oldag, 48, of 1795 W. 52d St., who identified himself as a 30-year Klan member, said, "It must have been members (he said of the cross burning), but I had nothing to do with it."

He was questioned by a

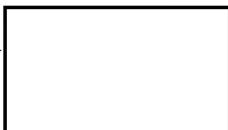

Press reporter who went to the scene after another Press employee observed the cross burning.

Oldag, an ironworker, said, "Our purpose was to publicize the Klan and this was a good way to do it."

Wayne Wolfe, 21, of 6100 Pear Ave., who also was at the cross burning, said, "I believe in white supremacy and in Jesus."

A hole had been dug in the south quadrant of Public Square earlier in the evening. The unrobed klansmen planted the cross of wood, burlap and wire and sprinkled with kerosene in the hole and set it afire.

CLEVELAND CHAPTER

The following newspaper article appeared in the Cleveland "Plain Dealer", July 6, 1974:

City weighs charges in case of cross burnings at 3 sites

Cleveland police intelligence detective consulted yesterday with the city prosecutor's office to learn if charges can be filed against persons believed to be members of the Ku Klux Klan who burned a 14-foot cross on Public Square and at two West Side locations in the last three days.

Sgt. Thomas Mahon was told the city's properties department would assess the damage caused where holes were dug to plant the cross.

Police said the cross was made of timber wrapped with wire and burlap and doused in kerosene, typical of crosses used by the KKK.

Two teams of detectives from the intelligence unit are working on the case.

After the properties department assesses damage, the prosecutor's office will determine whether to proceed with charges.

In addition to the cross burning in Public Square on Wednesday night, the same cross was seen burning yesterday morning at Edgewater Park and was reported seen at a third location that police would not reveal.

Police confiscated the cross from Edgewater Park and said they believed it was the same one used in all three burnings.

The source advised that the Cleveland NKKKK is speaking of possible additional cross burnings in the future.

The source advised that the Cleveland NKKKK is planning to attend the Cleveland City Council, July 8, 1974.

On July 5, 1974, Detective Sergeant [redacted] Headquarters Intelligence Unit, Cleveland Police Department, advised that his office is investigating. He further related that criminal charges involving violation of the Cleveland Clean Air Bill and Destruction of Public Property may be forthcoming.

On July 8, 1974, [redacted] of the Ohio NKKKK, contacted an Agent of the Cleveland FBI Office. [redacted] advised that he had recently returned from vacation and had learned of the cross burnings in Cleveland, Ohio. He stated he wanted the FBI to know that he was not responsible for the recent cross burnings. He stated [redacted] members of the Cleveland NKKKK, are responsible, and they are acting without the sanction of the Ohio NKKKK. [redacted] further advised that he personally expelled [redacted] from the Ohio NKKKK on May 18, 1974, after they were found guilty of undermining the NKKKK organization by creating verbal chaos.

[redacted] advised that [redacted] were not satisfied under his leadership inasmuch as they preferred violent activity. [redacted] refused to elaborate, but stated he feels [redacted] are capable of anything. [redacted] advised that the Cleveland NKKKK is operating as an independent Klan group.

[redacted] further advised that the Cleveland NKKKK maintains Cleveland Post Office Box 6003, and meets at the Blue Room Lounge, 61st and Lorain Avenues, Cleveland.

Detective [redacted] Headquarters Intelligence Unit, Cleveland Police Department, advised that on July 6, 1974, at 1:00 am, police cruisers were dispatched to David's Bar, 4105 Clark Avenue, after an anonymous caller advised that several males were in the bar threatening patrons.

[redacted] date of birth [redacted] was arrested for carrying a concealed weapon, and the following individuals were arrested for disorderly conduct:

Cleveland Att'd.

All of the above individuals were observed wearing K.K.K. jackets.

A locked 1964 Chevrolet, bearing Ohio license EH 8914, was illegally parked in front of the tavern. Attached to the windshield on the back was a KKK sticker. The stock of a shotgun was observed in the rear of the auto. Upon search of the vehicle, a loaded shotgun was discovered, numerous parking tickets, and hand printed instructions on how to construct bombs, igniters, napalm, and corrosive acids.

Law Enforcement Automated Data System revealed that Ohio license EH 8914 is listed to [redacted] [redacted] Cleveland.

On July 8, 1974, [redacted] advised that the Cleveland NKKKK changed their minds regarding attending the Cleveland City Council meeting on July 8, 1974. [redacted] does not intend to jeopardize his forthcoming court case.

The information in this memorandum is classified "Confidential" except those paragraphs marked "U" (Unclassified).

This investigation is based on information which indicates that this individual is engaged in activities which could involve a violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 241 (Conspiracy against rights of citizens); Section 245 (Federally protected activities), Civil Rights Act of 1968; or related Civil Rights Statutes. (U)

This individual was reported on February 10, 1973, to be a member of Klavern 102, New York State Realm, National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan (NKKKK), Pine Bush, New York.

Klan organizations claim as their aims the promotion of Americanism, white supremacy, and segregation of the races. They are primarily anti-black and anti-Semitic. (U)

Klan members and leaders have been involved in atrocities including beatings, bombings, and murders, and have engaged in activities seeking to deny others of their constitutional rights. (U)

Referenced letters have been declassified by the Bureau and New York should declassify its copies.

For information of New York, in order to properly qualify for classification under Executive Order 11652, information must be of such a nature that its unauthorized disclosure would presumably be expected to damage U. S. national defense or foreign relations. However, information bearing on white-hate activities ordinarily does not fall within the purview of national defense data unless there are subversive elements (i.e., unless such activities are aimed at overthrowing, destroying, or subverting the U. S. Government or its political subdivisions) or hostile foreign intelligence elements are involved. Accordingly, communications dealing with white-hate activities should not ordinarily be classified in the absence of unusual circumstances justifying such action.

RE: [redacted]

There are no apparent unusual circumstances in this particular instance. In addition, even if information in the letters and LHM is disclosed, as written, it would not lead to identifying the source of the information nor would it result in damage to U. S. national defense or foreign relations.

In future correspondence to the Bureau concerning members of the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan (NKKK), designate the character as EM - NKKK.

NOTE: Referenced New York letters were classified "Confidential," Category 2. Information contained therein identifies subjects as members of Klavern 102, National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan. This information would not lead to the identity of the informant and if the informant were identified, it would not affect national security. Although New York has separate cases on subjects, Bureau does not have individual cases on these subjects, members of the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, but rather this matter is being handled in the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan organization file, 157-168.

This is to advise that the 1974 National Klovnokation (annual convention) of the United Klans of America, Inc. (UKA), Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, is again scheduled for the Labor Day weekend at Tuscaloosa, Alabama. This year, as last, the Klovnokation dates coincide with the annual convention and cross burning of a top rival Klan group, the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan (NKKKK). That affair will be held at Stone Mountain, Georgia. We will have informant coverage for both events.

The UKA, organized in 1961, currently the largest of 15 existing Klan organizations with members in 18 states, has normally held its Klovnokation during the Thanksgiving weekend up until last year. Last year, [redacted] of the UKA, set the Klovnokation for the Labor Day weekend. He did this because he hoped to thereby get some advance of funds for the treasury and also because the UKA, besides experiencing serious financial problems, was also experiencing a loss of membership with threats that some units and members were planning to defect to the NKKKK. [redacted] is scheduled to be the principal speaker at the UKA affair. He expects the Grand Dragon (State President) and other representatives to attend from each of the 18 states. The Grand Dragons will meet on Friday evening 8/30/74 with most of the convention activities scheduled for Saturday and Sunday 8/31-9/1/74. Attendance this year is expected to be about 200 members.

National Klavokation, 1974
Extremist Matter - Klan
157-370

The NKKKK, chartered in Georgia in 1963, has each year held an annual convention - rally and cross burning on the Labor Day weekend to commemorate the "rebirth" of the Klan at Stone Mountain, Georgia, in 1915. This year the rally is again scheduled to be held at Stone Mountain on Saturday evening, 8/31/74. Although the NKKKK is represented in only 6 states, Imperial Wizard James R. Venable has sent invitations to many Klansmen throughout the country and expects a crowd of about 250 will be present. The Saturday evening cross burning, open to sympathizers as well as members, is normally the highlight of the annual affair. Venable is in poor health due to a recent operation and it is not known if he will speak at the Saturday rally.

Pertinent field offices involved have been advised of these scheduled events and we are arranging appropriate informant coverage to be alert to any major problems or policy matters discussed, particularly at closed meetings and caucuses.

On August 12, 1974, a confidential source furnished the following information regarding the annual clambake sponsored by Klavern 102, New York State Realm, National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan (NKKKK), Pine Bush, New York, held on August 10, 1974, at the residence of [Redacted] Pine Bush, New York.

The NKKKK was granted a charter in Georgia in 1963 as a "patriotic, secret, benevolent order." The NKKKK, a consolidation of various klans in the southern states, continues to be anti-Negro, anti-Jewish, anti-Catholic, and anti-foreign born.

Activity at the clambake began when people started to arrive at the [Redacted] property around 10:00 AM. Approximately 40 persons were in attendance including the following NKKKK members:

Pennsylvania Realm - NKKKK
Bucks County, Pennsylvania

[Redacted]
5/NKKKK members not identified

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

[redacted] stated the following expenses were incurred for the clambake which totalled $358.20:

Clams	$170.00
Corn	14.00
Ice	16.50
Soda	22.00
Beer	36.50
Chicken	9.20

A total of $166.25 was donated to help pay for the clambake including $50.00 contributions by [redacted] and a $25.00 contribution by [redacted]. This money was given to [redacted] who stated the remainder of the money needed to pay the expenses would come from the treasury of the New York State Realm.

Throughout the clambake activity no speeches were given by any of the NKKKK members. [redacted] Klavern 102, did announce to the gathering that a klavern meeting would be held at 7:30 PM followed at 8:00 PM with a klan initiation ceremony.

[redacted] stated he had written a letter to Governor George Wallace of Alabama offering him klan support for the 1976 presidential election campaign.

National Knights of the
Ku Klux Klan (NKKKK)

Around 8:00 PM, a NKKKK naturalization ceremony was held in the woods located to the rear of [redacted] property with the following being inducted into the NKKKK:

Gary Breece
507 Bridge Street
Morassville, Pennsylvania

Charles Hill
625 Spring Avenue <sup>NY</sup>
Marshville, Pennsylvania

[redacted]
New York, New York

[redacted]
Brooklyn, New York

[redacted]
Newburgh, New York

[redacted]
Bloomingburg, New York

Breece and Hill, who were brought to the klavern clambake by [redacted] will be active with a klavern in Morassville, Pennsylvania. [redacted] were invited by NKKKK member [redacted] from Brooklyn, New York, who has not been recently active with the klan.

National Knights of the
Ku Klux Klan (NKKKK)

The NKKKK naturalization ceremony ended at 10:30 PM with the burning of a cross twenty feet in height. After the cross lighting ceremony, [redacted] spoke to the Klansmen present about trust in each other and doing what is right not going against the law as a klan member. He thanked [redacted] for attending, but would not let them have the floor to give a speech.

[redacted] gave the closing ceremony and dismissed the klan members at 11:30 PM.

No comments promoting or advocating violence were made by any of the NKKKK members present at the clambake.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

(CONFIDENTIAL)

To All Members Of the National Knights Of The Ku Klux Klan.
Realm Of Ohio:

1974- 75 Objectives And Policies

Primary Objectives

1. The establishment of an official and regular publication in newspaper form for the purposes of educating the uninformed masses of the global conspiracy; obtaining revenue from the sales of subscriptions, etc.; providing a medium for the unification of all Klan groups throughout the United States through a regular activity report column focusing on the efforts of Klan groups throughout the United States. This project will be a major breakthrough for the progress of the Ohio N.K.K.K. and require the support of all members.
2. The establishment of an associate status with the Ohio N.-K.K.K. for the purpose of obtaining regular contributions from individuals who do not see it proper for themselves to become a member, but would like to be able to certify their having supported the Ohio N.K.K.K. An Official Supporter card will be issued to such individuals for an established minimum contribution. The Official Supporter card will bear an expiration date just as the membership card does, in order to secure a regular annual or semi-annual contribution. The supportership program has worked well in the past for other Patriotic, Christian organizations and often results in the Official Supporter becoming a Member of the organization.
3. The implementation of an educational program directed to members of the Ohio N.K.K.K. for the benifit of having a well informed organization and enabling its members, therefore, to effectively spread the Truth and Warn the public of the global conspiracy; to reinforce the Christian idealism of the Order; to inform the members of the implements and materials necessary to defend our Race and Survive during the struggle to come.
4. The implementation of a security system and/or organization within the structure of the Ohio N.K.K.K. to protect the Order from subversion, infiltration and attack from within and without.
5. The manufacture and sale of N.K.K.K. souveniers for the purposes of obtaining badly needed revenue.

~~(CONFIDENTIAL)~~

1974-75 Objectives And Policies (con't)

Policies

1. A greater current of communication must be established between the State Office and the Officers of the Ohio N.K.K.K.K.. There has been a great deficiency of communication between these levels in the past and has had a great deal to do with any lack of activism and membership the Ohio N.K.K.K.K. has suffered. Greater correspondance and communication between the Office and the Field levels of the Order will induce a better relationship among them, and will add greatly to the over all efficiency of the Ohio N.K.K.K.K.
2. A sense of responsibility to the growth and progress of the Ohio N.K.K.K.K., which is compelled by a dedication to Jesus Christ Race and Country should be felt by every member of the Order. The membership of the Ohio N.K.K.K.K. should be composed of Reliable and Responsible individuals. If this criterion is used we will be able to avoid many of the problems we have experienced in the past.
3. We must now begin to build our Order from within, to strengthen the structure and composition of the Ohio N.K.K.K.K.. In the past we have dedicated the greater portion of our efforts to propogating the truth and attempting to attain support from the Caucasian majority of this nation. The time table of our enemy now constrains us to redirect our efforts to the establishment of an Indestructable, Revolutionary Order dedicated to the redemption of our Christian Culture and the preservation of our Race.
4. A greater sense of true Brotherhood, and a sense of mutual understanding must be maintained by the members of the Ohio N.K.K.K.K.. We are a fraternity of Christians as much as we are a Revolutionary Order. If we consider one another as a Brother, which is the foundation of Klancraft, friction will be kept to the absolute minimum, allowing the Order to operate on the highest level of efficiency. "Be kindly affectionate one to another with brotherly love, in honor preferring one another." Romans 12:10
5. The success of the Ohio N.K.K.K.K. will depend on the ability it has to maintain the Secrecy of its composition and activities. This is why our enemy fears us, and seeks to divide and subvert us, for the very reason that we are a secret organization. Every member of the Order must perform their upmost to make certain that the Secrecy and confidential nature of the Ohio N.K.K.K.K. is not violated.

NATIONAL KNIGHTS OF THE
KU KLUX KLAN (NKKKK)

On September 5, 1974 [redacted] who has furnished reliable information in the past advised that the 1974 National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan (NKKKK) convention held in Stone Mountain, Georgia during the Labor Day weekend was represented by delegations from the states of Ohio, South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama, Texas, Florida, and North Carolina. There were also several representatives from California, Pennsylvania and Mississippi.

NATIONAL KNIGHTS OF THE
KU KLUX KLAN, INC. (NKKKK)

The National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc., (NKKKK) was granted a charter in Georgia in 1963 as a "patriotic, secret, social, and benevolent order." The NKKKK, a consolidation of various Klans in southern States, continues to be anti-Negro, anti-Jewish, anti-Catholic and anti-foreign born.

Source advised that the first official activity was the annual NKKKK opening or rally beginning at 8:15 p.m. on August 31, 1974. JAMES VENABLE introduced the speakers, interjecting Klan history and ideology between the speeches.

Source stated that the following individuals spoke at the 1974 NKKKK convention rally:

[redacted] of the Louisiana La

KKKK)

JA

[redacted] KKKK operates in cooperation with the NKKKK, however, it is an associate of the NKKKK.

[redacted] discussed for 30 to 40 minutes the heritage of the Ku Klux Klan, during the reconstruction period and compared the rise of the Klan in the past, to the rise of the Klan during contemporary times. Source stated that

RE: NATIONAL KNIGHTS OF THE
KU KLUX KLAN (NKKKK)

[redacted] reflects much of the propaganda and political strategy maintained by the National Socialist White People's Party (NSWPP). [redacted] was active with the NSWPP during the late 60s.

NATIONAL SOCIALIST WHITE PEOPLE'S PARTY (NSWPP)
Also Known As,
THE AMERICAN NAZI PARTY,
AMERICAN NAZIS,
THE WORLD UNION OF FREE ENTERPRISE
NATIONAL SOCIALISTS, THE GEORGE LINCOLN ROCKWELL PARTY

The American Nazi Party - The World Union of Free Enterprise National Socialists was organized by George Lincoln Rockwell on February 26, 1956, based upon the concept of an international "National Socialist" movement, as espoused by the German Nazi Party, which was headed by Adolf Hitler. On January 1, 1967, the official name of this organization was changed to National Socialist White People's Party. The NSWPP supports and follows the line of hatred against blacks, Jews and communists through various propaganda media, demonstrations, and other publicity-seeking devices for the purpose of seeking a legitimate dominant political party within the United States and in foreign countries. Headquartered in Arlington, Virginia, the NSWPP is currently led by [redacted]

[redacted] (member of the Florida NKKKK since 1924) discussed the Christian fraternal concept of the NKKKK and reflected very little racial ideology during his 30 minute address. [redacted] was soft-spoken and perhaps the least radical or militant of all Klan speakers this day. ca 77a

Speaking after [redacted] was a masked Klan lady from Florida, who reenforced the Christian idealism of the NKKKK and reaffirmed that Jesus Christ was the leader of the NKKKK.

RE: NATIONAL KNIGHTS OF THE
KU KLUX KLAN (NKKKK)

Source advised that this Klan's lady also spoke at the NKKKK convention meeting on September 1, 1974 held at the Imperial Palace. Source stated that she spoke without her robe on September 1, 1974 and she is about 55 to 65 years old, with red hair, medium height and build, and wears glasses.

Source further advised that the next speaker was a Klan officer from either Alabama or Texas. He began his speech by screaming "Are you a white man?" This individual made the congregation reply to his questions and then continued his address in a typical anti-Negro, anti-Semitic ideology.

[redacted] of the Texas NKKKK) propagated a very radical ideology, calling for an end to the non-whites in America by using whatever means necessary.

AC

MEMBER OF SUBJECT ORGANIZATION

The last speaker before the ceremonial [redacted]
"cross illumination" was [redacted] Ohio. Source stated that [redacted] said that the whites are a greater threat to the Klan than the blacks and the Jews. Source advised that [redacted] address, which had a less radical tone than [redacted] ended with an excerpt from a PATRICK HENRY speech, "Give me liberty or give me death."

Same source advised that at least half the congregation left the festivities after the cross illumination, which reduced the attendance at the rally from about 350 to about 175.

SC

Source stated that after the cross illumination [redacted] (South Carolina NKKKK) spoke to those remaining. [redacted] explained that his klansmen were prepared to physically oppose and resist busing in South Carolina when racial tensions had reached their peak during 1973. [redacted] said that he told several parents who came to him for help in 1973 that he would take the school building apart "brick by brick" if the school officials of the particular school districts involved did not release their children into the custody of the parents immediately.

RE: NATIONAL KNIGHTS OF THE
KU KLUX KLAN (NKKKK)

Source advised after [redacted] spoke, [redacted] of Pennsylvania NKKKK) then read from a five [redacted] page handwritten manuscript in a monotone regarding the [redacted] Bible and the spiritual nature of the Jews. [redacted]

Source stated that [redacted] of Georgia NKKKK) discussed the heritage and ideology of the NKKKK, referring to the organization as a "politically oriented organization" rather than a military oriented one.

[redacted] Ohio NKKKK) was the last speaker, focusing on the relation of the white race to the Bible, and the spiritual significance of the NKKKK. [redacted] propagated the "identity ministry" which puts the Christian religion into a group which makes it applicable to white King ideology. [redacted] terminated the rally that date with a brief prayer. Source stated that the four public address system speakers used for the rally this date belonged to [redacted]

Source advised that during [redacted] speech, [redacted] presented the South Carolina Grand Dragon with a plaque from the Greenville, South Carolina lodge of the NKKKK for their appreciation of [redacted] efforts to organize the NKKKK in South Carolina.

Source advised that about 100 to 150 robed klansmen attended the 1974 NKKKK rally on this date. Source advised that there were about 24 male and female NKKKK security guards from South Carolina in attendance with ages ranging from 16 to 45 years old. Source stated that these guards wore black uniforms with arm badges and were unarmed. Their function was limited to directing traffic and parking cars on August 31, 1974. Source stated that there were no incidents or violence during this date, and that the entire rally was filmed by the American Broadcasting Company (ABC).

On September 5, 1974, [redacted] who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that on September 1, 1974 from 9:00 a.m. until 10:45 a.m. a breakfast was provided for about 75 to 100 delegates of the 1974 NKKKK klonvention meeting at the Imperial Palace in Stone Mountain,

RE: NATIONAL KNIGHTS OF THE
KU KLUX KLAN (NKKKK)

Georgia. Source stated that beginning at 11:00 a.m. various speakers representing Klan groups throughout the U.S. occupied the platform at the Imperial Palace until 3:45 p.m. that date. Source stated that the speakers in their approximate order were as follows:

A South Carolina Klan officer (described as in his mid-50s, medium to heavy build, 5'8" to 5'11", dark hair, bald on top). This speaker insisted that the NKKKK should never cross the boundaries of being a Christian fraternal organization. He mentioned that he was violently opposed to the racist-hate ideology maintained by many Klan officers.

[redacted] then took issue with the speaker before him, stating as follows: "The Klan is the <sup>in</sup>action organization. When the enemy pickets, we must picket. When the enemy demonstrates, we must demonstrate. When the enemy moves, we must advance. The white majority of this nation will be looking for the most radical means to a solution for their problems. I hope that the Klan will be that means." Source stated that [redacted] then compared this theory to the reason why the Russians chose the Bolsheviks over the Mensheviks during the Russian revolution, and why the Bolsheviks were more radical than the minority party at that time. Source stated that [redacted] left for Baton Rouge, Louisiana after he spoke to the delegates this day.

[redacted] then blasted pacifist and non-activist philosophy, stating that he hopes that he returns to Texas with a racist, hate image because he wants to attract racist haters.

[redacted] then advised that several elderly Klansmen and Klan ladies followed [redacted] speaking in a casual manner, focusing on the virtues and spiritual significance of "KlanCraft." AC

Same source advised that [redacted] then spoke in a very emphatic manner, blaming Klansmen for holding the progress of his Ohio organization back. He also stated that if an imperial board was not formed before he returned to Ohio, he would never return to another NKKKK convention or activity.

RE: NATIONAL KNIGHTS OF THE
KU KLUX KLAN (NKKKK)

Same source advised that [redacted] then discussed his progress and satisfaction with the NKKKK. Source stated that although [redacted] maintains an extreme philosophy, he does not follow a militant program in South Carolina, and refers to the NKKKK as a political instrument of the Caucasian majority of the U.S. Source stated that at the end of [redacted] speech this date he was presented with another plaque from the lodge in South Carolina.

Closed
Source stated that the next speaker this date [redacted] State Organizer for the Ohio NKKKK. [redacted] advised that he hoped to prepare the Ohio NKKKK for military action against the liars and murderers in our government. [redacted] then mentioned that the NSWPP introduced him to right wing ideology. [redacted] then argued with [redacted] for several minutes over the NSWPP.

Source advised that following [redacted] were several more elderly speakers, including [redacted] from Florida.

Source advised that [redacted] followed [redacted] and he spoke with the same philosophy as [redacted] stated that the NKKKK was a political representative for the white majority in the U.S.

Source advised that [redacted] then briefly discussed the recent cross burning activity in Cleveland, Ohio. ga

Source stated that also speaking on September 1, 1974 were [redacted] from Florida.

Source stated that JAMES VENABLE introduced all the speakers on September 1, 1974 and addressed the delegation several times, discussing klan virtues and Christian idealism as applied to the political strategy of the NKKKK.

RE: NATIONAL KNIGHTS OF THE
KU KLUX KLAN (NKKKK)

Same source advised that the final speaker this date was a self-claimed minister residing in Georgia, whose sermon bore more on evangelism than the klan. He terminated the meeting with a prayer.

Source stated that from 3:45 p.m. until 5:00 p.m. a Russian smorgasbord was provided for the September 1, 1974 delegation to the NKKKK convention at the Imperial Palace of the NKKKK.

On September 5, 1974, [redacted] advised that the 1974 Imperial Board meeting of the NKKKK was held in the rear office room of the Imperial Palace from 5:00 p.m. until 7:00 p.m. on September 1, 1974. Attending delegates to this meeting were:

JAMES VENABLE (Chairman of the NKKKK Imperial Board)

N<sup>o</sup>

A few other unidentified individuals.

RE: NATIONAL KNIGHTS OF THE
KU KLUX KLAN (NKKKK)

[redacted] Source stated that [redacted] [redacted] acted as advisors to the board members at this meeting.

✓ Same source advised that the Imperial Board meeting began with a prayer by [redacted] ✓ [redacted] then demanded that every delegate at the meeting be interrogated to insure that no Catholics were attending, or he would drop out of the Imperial Board. Every delegate was then interrogated by Chairman JAMES VENABLE and no Catholics were found to be in attendance.

Source advised that the Imperial Board then compiled an official Imperial Board press release, composed of the political aims and goals of the NKKKK.
Source advised that these aims and goals were the common objectives such as the disillusion of the U.S. in the United Nations, lower taxes, and the restoration of the U.S. constitution. The Imperial Board also released a resolution that the NKKKK abhorred the nomination of NELSON ROCKEFELLER for Vice-President of the U.S. This press release was submitted to the UPI and AP by [redacted] during the Imperial Board meeting.

Same source advised that the Imperial Board then voted to raise the initiation fee of the NKKKK to new members, and/or applicants from 15 to 20 dollars and yearly dues from 12 to 24 dollars. An additional resolution was added that in hardship cases the initiation fee and dues would be set at the discretion of the Grand Dragon of the state.

Source advised that at this meeting JAMES VENABLE advised that the Klan would be active in the 1976 Presidential election and that [redacted] from Ohio would run for president. [redacted] selected [redacted] from Texas as his Vice-Presidential candidate. Source stated that this move on the part of VENABLE was mainly to give the newspaper reporters something to write about, and that [redacted] advised that he would not confirm any efforts on his part to run for the president until at least December of 1974.

SEGREGATION - OUR SALVATION - ARYAN
SURVIVAL

By DALE REUSCH

I want my grandson to look like me—
Be intelligent, Loyal, Happy and Free.

No tell-tale marks upon his face
To brand him with a Mongrel Race.

Be loyal to the Nation and the South
With active deeds and word of mouth,

Preserve the Aryan Race—the Whites
And ready to battle for their rights.

The negro should also want his grandson
To always be and look like one

Of his own Race, and in color and shade,
Be like the negro the good Lord made.

He should not want a spot of white
To deny his grandson his inborn right

To be as Black as the Lord decreed—
Like his old Ancestor when he was Freed.

The Mulatto is the Mark of Death,
Should cause both Races to hold their Breath.

He defies what the good Lord has in mind
When He said—"EVERYTHING AFTER ITS KIND."

He's an open challenge to WHAT GOD HATH WROUGHT
And brings both Races down to Naught.

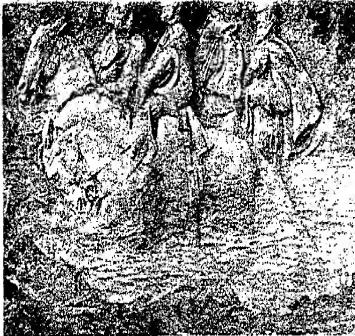

Neither Race can be free again
After they fall to the Mulatto plane.

The author of this story of the Ku Klux Klan has been associated with the Klan for practically his whole lifetime. He is a prominent practicing attorney in Atlanta and with sufficient opportunity and ample time to defend, mull over, and ferret out the many aspects of the origin, motives, principles and the purposes of the Klan. Living in Stone Mountain, home of the Klan, he has been in constant contact with all the phases of Klankraft for all of his adult life. Being a "man of the law" he has never found an inkling of deceit, or departure from the highest of ethical standards and behavior on the part of true Klansmen or the fraternal order that represents them.

The noble ride of the Ku Klux Klan of the Reconstruction period is immortalized by its achievements; No errors of omission or commission by prejudiced historians can dim the lustre of its deeds or rob it of its rightful place in history as the savior of the South; and thereby, the savior of the nation, for had there been no ride of the Ku Klux Klan, there would not today be 50 stars in the flag that floats from the dome of the capitol in Washington.

Fifty-nine years ago the inspiration of reviving the original Ku Klux Klan and of perpetuating the noble principles upon which the noble organization was founded, and of perpetuating its spiritual purpose, originated in the mind of Colonel William Joseph Simmons, professor of Southern History at Lanier University in Atlanta, Georgia. Not to

To keep alive the memory of the original Klan and the principles, traditions and institutions which they risked their lives to preserve for themselves and for posterity, the men of today, who appreciate their patriotic and chivalric work, have established a living, lasting, memorial to them by the organization of the Invisible Empire, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, as a national, standard, fraternal order, composed of real American manhood of the nation who uncompromisingly believe in perpetual preservation of the fundamental ideals and institutions of the pure Anglo-Saxon revive its original necessary modus operandi, for such conditions justifying this, exist today, but to reincarnate its lofty spiritual purpose in a new body of a real patriotic fraternal order.

For fourteen years Colonel Simmons thought, studied, and worked to prepare himself for launching this great movement. He dedicated his life to this purpose and during those years he kept his own counsel and in the secret recesses of his soul he worked out the great purpose and plan.

Then, in October 1915, he mentioned his ambition to some friends, among whom were many bona fide members of the original Klan when it was disbanded by General Forrest. All were enthusiastic over the proposal and, as a result, at a meeting held in the same month, all present, thirty-four in number, signed a petition for a charter.

The petition was accepted and on Thanksgiving night in 1915 the organizers of the Klan assembled on top of a giant granite mountain near Atlanta known as Stone Mountain, the largest solid rock in the world, and there, at midnight, under a blazing fiery cross, they took the oath of allegiance to the Invisible Empire, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan. The charter was issued by the State of Georgia, December 4, 1915, and a special charter was granted by the Superior Court of Fulton County, Georgia, July 1, 1916.

The new Klan had, among its charter members, three members of the original Ku Klux Klan. It was declared to be the original organization's only legitimate heir with sole rights to all its signs, symbols, regalia, etc. It has, each year since 1915, held its anniversary celebrations which were mainly by public appearances in official costumes, on May 6, the date on which the old Klan was founded. From this small beginning in Atlanta, Georgia, over fifty-nine years ago, with only thirty-four members, the Klan has spread until its membership runs far into the millions and it has representation in every state in the union.

The purpose of the modern Ku Klux Klan is to inculcate the sacred principles and noble ideals of chivalry, the development of character, the protection of the home, and the chastity of womanhood, the exemplification of a pure and practical patriotism toward our glorious country, the preservation of American ideals and institutions and the maintenance of white supremacy, and unrelenting opposition to Communism and Socialism.

No man is admitted to the fellowship of the Invisible Empire of today who does not possess the manhood to assume a sublime oath supporting Right and Duty with serious purpose to keep the same inviolate. No man is admitted to fellowship who will not, or can not, swear an unqualified allegiance to the government of the United States of America, its flag, its Constitution and institutions.

Only native-born, white, American citizens, who believe in the tenets of the Christian religion and who owe no allegiance of any degree or nature to any foreign government or institution, religious or political, or to any sect, person or persons--are eligible for membership.

While its name would indicate that it is purely a Southern organization, such is not the case. The Ku Klux Klan is non-sectional and non-sectarian. It is a purely patriotic, fraternal organization. In fact, in the few years of its existence, the organization has numbered among its membership many men and women, some of them nationally known, who have never lived in the South. As proof of its non-political attitude, men and women prominent in both the Democratic and Republican parties, including members of the national Congress, were leaders in the organization. Its compelling appeal to citizens of all sections lies in the fact that it is strictly an American institution, of and for, white, American citizens, pledged to fundamental American ideals and American institutions.

Throughout the annals of the ages in all recorded movements for the betterment of Humanity, whether by revolt against tyranny or along more peaceful lines, we see the manifestation of what justly may be termed "Ku Klux Spirit"--the spirit that rebels at oppression and even defies law itself when that law, measured by all the standards of wisdom, justice and understanding, is tyrannical and the instrument of depotism.

Before the great Persian Empire was created, there was an organization formed for the purpose of enforcing Justice. It worked secretly and it was impelled by the intolerable conditions surrounding the very conduct of the courts in which there was open and brazen miscarriage of Justice. Its emblem was the star and crescent--symbolic of the sovereignty of Justice.

True, this ancient organization did its work in secret and took the law into its own hands (so to speak), but the attitude and the purpose of this early order, which was one of the first recorded manifestations of the "Ku Klan Spirit," hundreds of years later was endorsed by no less in authority than Thomas Jefferson when he declared: "Rebellion against tyrants (or tyranny) is obedience to God," and by Patrick Henry when he shouted in defiance of the tyrannical British parliament: "Give me liberty or give me death."

Patrick Henry's declaration, if it stood for anything at all, meant that he would rather die than submit to tyrannous law.

The history of continental Europe is filled with instances in which men who were oppressed and who saw no relief in sight by open rebellion because of the superior power of the oppressor, banded themselves together in secret with an oathbound determination to die if by death alone they could free themselves from the rule of the tyrant.

Man of Anglo-Saxon stock is a sovereign being and he will wear no man's yoke.

The followers of Calvin and Luther, and of John Knox in Scotland exemplified to a high the Ku Klux spirit. Because of the fewness of their numbers and because they faced death or imprisonment if they waged their fight in the open, they carried on their work in secret until they felt the time was opportune to bring the issue out into the open. 39

The spirit that prompted the followers of Calvin, Luther and Knox was identical with the spirit that actuated our Revolutionary fathers and the men of the South in the Reconstruction period.

The American colonies rebelled against constituted authority. They rebelled against the iniquitous tax laws imposed upon them by the mother country, because the laws were unjust and therefore tyrannical. They rebelled because they saw the rights and liberties for which they had braved the unknown terrors of the sea and the unexplored wilds of the New World rapidly receding to the vanishing point.

Fully understanding the superior power arrayed against them, they realized that the "little leaven that leaveneth the whole lump" must be started working before they openly challenged the power of the United States government. Thus, it came to pass that long before the "shot heard 'round the world" was fired. The mighty force was secretly put in operation that cemented the colonies in the determination of "liberty or death," and made possible the greatest monument of all time to liberty and justice--the Republic of the United States of America.

In Revolutionary history we have two noteworthy manifestations of the Ku Klux spirit. One was the "Charleston Tea Party" and the other was the "Boston Tea Party" which occurred four days after the former. In the first instance the outraged citizens of the Colonies recorded their wrath against the tyrannous taxes of the British government by boarding eleven ships in the Charleston Harbor and, without masks, but with guns in their hands, sank the tea ships by boring holes in their bottoms.

In the case of the Boston Tea Party the Colonists disguised themselves as Indians, arded the British tea ships and dumped their cargoes into the sea.

The only difference between the members of the Boston Tea Party and the members of the Ku Klux Klan of the Reconstruction period following the Civil War was that the former were disguised as Indians while the latter disguised themselves as ghosts with masks and flowing robes. The actuating motive and the spiritual purpose of the men in both instances was the same.

When the roar of guns had ceased and the smoke of battle lifted from the South in 1865, it meant the end of the "War Between the States," but it marked the beginning of a new battle for the South--a battle for its very existence as a free people, a battle for its sacred civilization and for the exercise of its rights which General Grant had recognized and so frankly admitted at Appomattox and which President

Lincoln so emphatically reaffirmed when he declared of the Southern States: "I shall treat them as if they had never been away."

Lincoln's intentions toward the South were honest and sincere, because they were in harmony with the fundamental principles of American civilization. The issues which had driven the two sections had been settled by the arbitrament of the sword and out of the fairness and brotherly love of his great heart he found it possible to welcome the men of the South back into the Union as brothers whose misunderstanding had been adjusted.

But the bullet that snuffed the holy light of Lincoln's life struck down the most powerful friend the South and civilization had above the Mason-Dixon line, and made it possible for Thad Stevens and his henchmen--an unscrupulous group of South-haters--to attempt to carry out their infamous program of establishing a Negro empire in the South and settin heel of brutal and despotic tyranny upon necks of a helpless, defenseless, but a reign people.

Thus we come down to that much misunderstood and shamefully slandered organization of the Reconstruction period which manifested on the largest scale of which we have any record, the Ku Klux spirit, and which made famous the name by which the spirit--the spirit of opposition to tyranny and oppression in any form--has come known.

With the fiery cross, symbol of the purest and most loyal patriotism as their beacon, the Klux Klan rode in the cause of humanity to save the God-given heritage of racial integrity; to restore civilization; to protect the defenseless; to shield that which was sacred; to avenge the crimes against the innocent; to restore to a free-born people their sacred right created for them by the shed blood of a noble ancestry.      43

When the "Light of Right" was established over Might, the Klan felt that its job was done--so it was honorably disbanded.

In spite of the noble purpose of the Ku Klux Klan, and in spite of the great service it rendered to both the white and the negro races; to North as well as South--yes, to ALL America--no organization in the history of man ever had heaped upon it the abuse and misrepresentations that fell to its lot. Foes of the South and enemies of the Southern people viciously assailed it as a band of murderers who stopped at nothing and who whipped and terrorized both black and white, and vented its spite and avenged its wrongs, real or fancied, upon whoever incurred its displeasure.

No fouler slander was ever perpetrated.
Instead of being murderers and cut-throats, the members of the Ku Klux Klan, then, as now, were men of the highest type as a body and they were sworn to, and stood firmly upon, the principles of constitutional law. They worked to safeguard life and property, or what there was left of it; to ameliorate the terrible conditions growing out of the carpet-baggers from the North and scalawags from the South, who turned traitors to their own people, and their baneful influence over the Negro.

IT IS regrettable that the reading public has accepted as factual many fictitious stories from unscrupulous fiction writers who have dreamed up Klan horror-dramas for the sole purpose of selling their stories to a publisher.

The carpet-baggers and their unscrupulous associates in the North were NOT the valiant soldiers who fought and bled in the battle-fields, but, using a modern phrase, they were the cowardly "slackers" of that time, pie-counter politicians and unreasonable and unreasoning fanatics.

Constitutional law was stripped by profane hands of her virtuous vestments; ignorance, lust and hate seized the reins of state; the long-established order of society was disrupted by the sudden elevation to power of a grossly inferior race, led by the most skillful fiends in human form, and the very blood of the Caucasian race was threatened with an everlasting contamination. Never before in the annals of humanity was there such an insult to human progress.

The whole land was fastened in the crushing jaws of a ruthless tyranny enthroned by military despotism; law and order, peace and justice were things of the past and that sacred bulwark of human liberty--the Constitution of the United States of America--was in practice considered a "mere scrap of paper." The originators and perpetrators of this, the darkest epoch in the history of the world, were NOT the good people of the North because they were in ignorance of the real facts of what was being done. Those responsible for this unparalleled reign of ruthless despotism were less than a dozen unscrupulous politicians, prompted by hate and led on in their infamous purpose by graft and greed.

The chastity of wife, mother, daughter and sister was imperiled; life and living were made intolerable. In the name of Law, the property of the husband and father was ruthlessly snatched from him without provocation--confiscated--and the grim visages of Want, Hunger, Fear and Woe, unutterable, were visible everywhere.

The people of the South turned appealingly to the power of their National government, but were spurned away with contempt and scorn. They cried out to the nations of the earth, as

France cried in the hour of her greatest peril, but they, too, "passed by on the other side."

But the cry of the defenseless, terrorized and bleeding people, scorned by their own government to which they had been guaranteed protection, and with the treaty of peace signed by Grant and Lee, branded by Thad Stevens, in conduct if not in words, as a "scrap of paper" was not to go unanswered.

The men who for four years had borne upon their bayonets the Ark of the Confederacy through one of the most savage wars in history heard and answered the cry and, as Knights of the Invisible Empire, impelled by an instinct of the race, they leaped into the saddle, consecrated to their task by the touch of the hot tears of defenseless womanhood and borne upon the backs of their faithful steeds, they came--they saw--they conquered!

NORTHERN MAN LAUDS WORK OF OLD KLAN

(Excerpt from "Secret Political Societies in the South During the Period of Reconstruction," written by Walter Henry Cook, of Western Reserve University, Cleveland, Ohio.)

The Ku Klux accomplished much. From a political viewpoint it secured home rule for several of the Southern States. It ended the disgraceful rule of the carpetbaggers therein, and it helped to re-establish honest and efficient governmental institutions. This example was an inspiration which, after 1872, soon led the men of the Southern states still in radical control to a GLORIOUS VICTORY in regaining self-government.

From an economic standpoint, the negroes had been frightened into going to work and were prevented, to a large extent, from breaking labor contracts. These were important services in the rehabilitation of the South.

From a social standpoint the Klan protected property, protected life, and brought order out of chaos.

The Ku Klux Klan of the Reconstruction period was the outgrowth of a dire necessity born of insufferable conditions forced on the Southern people by a group of greedy, conscienceless politicians, and the character of the men who were at its head in the various Southern states is a lasting rebuke to the charge that it was composed of a band of outlaws. I deny that it was then, and I deny that it is now, composed of a band of outlaws as stated by Mr. Harry Truman and President Johnson.

When conditions in the South became intolerable, a number of Southern gentlemen called a meeting to be held in Nashville, Tennessee, to consider the situation. They decided that a secret organization alone could cope with the conditions so they made their plans accordingly and adopted the name Ku Klux from the Greek word "kuklos" meaning an unbroken circle. General Nathan Bedford Forrest, a noted Confederate officer, then living in Memphis, Tennessee, was induced to become its chief under the title of Grand Wizard.

General Forrest's chief judicial officer in the Klan was General Albert Pike, a native of Boston, Massachusetts. General Pike is known to Masons throughout the world for the work he did in building up Scottish Rite Masonry and for the books he wrote on Masonry and which were considered authoritative.

Chief among the officers of the Klan were General W. J. Hardee who was grand dragon of Alabama; General John B. Gordon, grand dragon of Georgia; General Wade Hampton, grand dragon of South Carolina; General Robert Woods, grand titan of northeast Georgia; and Nathan Buford Forrest, II, son of General Nathan Bedford Forrest, who was Grand Dragon of Georgia, and who lived on Forrest Avenue, Atlanta, Georgia. Because this street was named after General Forrest, the negroes, in 1973, attempted to change its name, but were unsuccessful. To these names could be added a long list of others especially well-known.

Contrary to popular opinion, the Ku Klux Klan was not sectional except as to territory. Among its members were many men who had fought in the Federal army and who had decided to make their homes in the South after the war. They held no resentment against their Southern brothers. They realized the insanity of attempting to force negro domination upon the South and they cast their lot with their former foes of the battlefield in the movement to restore the South to its rightful place in the nation.

In addition to these, many of the white soldiers of the Federal army of occupation who were actually on duty in the South and who were under orders to kill a member of the Invisible Empire on sight, were members of the Ku Klux Klan. And connected with the Klan work were hundreds of Negroes who rendered a service of imperishable import and who suffered torture, and death for many, at the hands of the Union League and the carpetbaggers, for their unshakable fidelity.

The Klan may be antagonized and forced to fight many battles, but perish--never! To destroy it is an impossibility for it belongs, in essence, to the realms spiritual. It is unshaken by unjust criticisms; no power can thwart it in its onward conquest of RIGHT; it courts not the plaudits of the populace, nor is it swerved from its course by the libel of its foes.

Attuned with Deity, functioning only for the good of all humanity, misjudged by ignorance, misunderstood by many, slandered by prejudice, it never falters and will never fail.

The war between the states destroyed the institution of slavery the dark years of the carpetbaggers' domination well-nigh destroyed the South and Anglo-Saxon civilization, for after the sword came the canker-worm and the enforcement of despotic intrigue.

After the Confederate soldiers had laid down their arms and accepted their paroles in good faith, singly, in squads, many of them on foot, without a dollar in their pockets and without a friend to borrow from, they returned to their desolate homes and began anew to rebuild their vanquished fortunes.

Insofar as the Confederate soldier was concerned the war was over. He had fought to the limit of his capacity for the cause he was convinced was right, the issue had been settled by the sword and he had accepted the decree. The reins of government had again been placed in the hands of the best men of the South and the voices of the former army commanders again were heard in the halls of the National Congress. Little attention was paid by them to the mouthings of the "blood-hounds of hate," directed by Lust and Greed, who, in peacetime, still refused to leave the track of their infamous conquest for spoils.

For over a year, peace ostensibly hovered over the battlefields of the South. But soon the thunder of the impending storm of the American Reconstruction, was heard in the land. Throughout the North, and especially in New England, meetings were held and from pulpits, rostrums and public halls, those frothing enemies of the South preached a crusade of extermination against the Southern People.

If Grant's order to Halleck to "eat out Virginia clear and clean, so that crows flying over it will have, for the balance of the season, to carry their own provender with them," or his order to Sheridan to hang without trial any of Mosby's men who were caught, may be excused on the grounds that it was justified by the exigencies of war--what excuse can be made for this tirade delivered after the war was over by Wendell Phillips from the pulpit of Henry Ward Beecher's church:

I do not believe in battles ending this war. You may plant a fort in every district in the South, you may take possession of her capitals and hold them with your armies, but you have not begun to subdue her people. I know it seems something like absolute barbarian conquest, I allow it, but I do not believe there will be any peace until 347,000 men of the South are either hanged or exiled."

Some time later, at a convention held in New York, "Parson" Brownlow said:

If I had the power I would arm every wolf, panther, catamount and bear in the mountains of America, every crocodile in the swamps of Florida, every Negro in the South, every devil in hell, clothe them with the uniform of the Federal army and turn them loose on the rebels of the South and exterminate every man, woman and child south of Mason and Dixon's line. I would like to see Negro troops, under the command of Butler, crowd every rebel into the Gulf of Mexico and drown them as the devil did the hogs in the Sea of Gallilee."

In another convention held in Philadelphia,

Parson Brownlow said:

I am one of those who believe the war ended too soon. We have whipped the South, but not enough. The loyal masses constitute an overwhelming majority of the people of this country and they intend to march again on the South and intend this second war shall be no child's play. The second army will, as they ought to, make the entire South as God found the earth--without form and void.

Following Brownlow's speech, Governor Yates, of Illinois, rose in his seat and said:

Illinois furnished 250,000 troops to fight the South, and now we are ready to furnish 500,000 more to finish the good work.

And who was this Butler that Parson

Brownlow wished to command an army of Negro troops and drive every former confederate soldier into the Gulf of Mexico? He commanded the Federal army in New Orleans after the Yankees captured the city and earned the title of "The Beast" because of his conduct toward defenseless Southerners generally, and women in particular. It was Butler who ordered General Weitzel to compel the Negroes of La Founce parish to murder the white people of the parish. In reply to this order, General Weitzel wrote:

The idea of my inciting the Negro insurrection is heart-rending. I will resign my command rather than induce Negroes to outrage and murder the helpless whites.

Indicating the storm of hate let loose upon the South after the Civil War--and for the purpose of disclosing what our histories do not reveal--that the people of the South were compelled to fight a second war more terrible than the first, to preserve their honor and the land of their birth--these facts compiled by Lamar Fontaine, C.E., Ph.D., of Lyons, Mississippi, who lived through that perilous period, are reproduced:

Thus it was that for two years after the close of the great war in every hamlet and convention hall in the North, thousands of preachers, orators and teachers dinned into the ears of the listening multitudes, their fiendish venom until a wild wave of fanatical, insane, New England Puritan hate, swept like an East Indian hurricane over the entire North . . . the Southern members of the National Congress were as impotent to stay the dark whirlwind of Hate as a cork floating upon the crest of a tidal wave. Then a species of Negro insanity raged among the negrophiles of the New England states and it too spread like a prairie fire and took possession of the unthinking masses. Books and pamphlets fell from the New England presses like hail from a passing cloud. Men and women from pulpit and rostrum, advocated the mixing of the Negro and white races and the establishment of a Negro republic in the South after its conquered people had first been destroyed and the land rendered, as Parson Brownlow expressed, "as God found it, without form and void."

Judge Salmon P. Chase, one of Lincoln's cabinet, paid a visit to the South after the surrender. Returning home he said:

I found the whites a worn-out, effete race, without vigor, mental or physical. On the contrary, the Negroes are alive, alert, full of energy. I predict in 25 years the Negroes of the South will be at the head of all affairs political, religious, the arts and sciences.

A New England schoolmarm, returning with her swarthy, thick-lipped husband, said to a gaping crowd of her associates:

I hope that when I pass away from earth I will be able to look down from the Heavenly blue above and see the black heel set on the white necks of those (Southern) people.

Henry Ward Beecher and Theodore Tiller both asserted:

The Negro is superior to the white race. If the latter do not forget their pride of race and color and amalgamate with the purer and richer blood of the blacks they will die out and wither away in unprolific skinniness.

The spread of anti-Southern sentiment throughout the North forced Congress to act and the Reconstruction Act was the result. Southern Senators and Representatives were sent back to their homes, the entire civil government of the South was disrupted, and the Negro was placed in power in every department, state and national. In support of this Reconstruction Act in Congress, James A. Garfield, later elected president of the United States, said:

This act sets out by laying hands on all the rebel state governments and taking the very breath of life out of them. In the next place it puts a bayonet at the breast of every rebel in the South. In the next, it leaves in the hands of Congress utter and absolute power over the people of the South.

The Reconstruction acts of Congress constitute the most appalling tragedy in human history. Elections in the South were carried at the point of the bayonet; white men of the South were forced away from the polls and Negroes and conscienceless carpetbaggers from the North, who had been in the South only a few weeks, were allowed to cast ballots and were elected to office. All in violation of the Constitution and every fundamental principle of Republican government.

QUOTE--

Adventurers swarmed out of the North, as much the enemies of one race as of another, to cozen, beguile, and use the Negroes. . . .

The white men were roused by a mere instinct of self-preservation until at last there sprung into existence a great Ku Klux Klan, a veritable Empire of the South, to protect the Southern country.

--Woodrow Wilson

We have said that the Ku Klux spirit throughout the ages has been the antithesis of tyranny, the foe of despotism, and always festered liberty. Why should we call it the Ku Klux spirit rather than by any other name, and why should we feel warranted in the assertion that it is the antithesis of tyranny?

The Ku Klux spirit has never manifested itself with force except when driven to it by the usurpation of power or attempt to usurp it. It has never questioned the right of any man of any race to live his life and conduct his own affairs as he sees fit so long as such conduct does not conflict with the established order of society.

From the past, the voice of the great Lincoln must be heard:

There are physical differences between the races which would forever forbid them living together on terms of political and social equality.

The Klan today, unlike the Klan of fifty or one hundred years ago, is fighting on many fronts trying to save this Nation from the Communists and the One-World Government, as well as trying to keep the white race white, and the black race black.

The Klan has been the object of continuous indictment for the last thirty years by the press and all news media, and many of the religious faiths of the country, because it has been alert in trying to expose the Communistic and the Socialistic world and the infiltration of the educational and religious fields by the Communistic methods used in brain-washing our young people--one of the greatest dangers facing us and the welfare of our great nation today.

The press, or the greater portion of the same, as well as the television and radio media, has, and is, being controlled by groups that believe in the New Deal, New Frontier, and Mr. Johnson's Great Society.

Let me say, here and now, that there has never been a Klansman charged or convicted of selling information to the enemy known as the Communist or Socialist world, concerning the welfare of our country; nor has there ever been a Klansman charged as being a Communist; nor has there ever been a Klansman who did not respond to the call of his country for military duty; nor has there ever been a Klansman charged with violating his oath of office in which the people had voted their confidence in him by the ballot box.

The Klan is the only Anglo-Saxon patriotic organization remaining in this country which has all of the qualifications necessary to save this country from mongrelization and Communist conquest. Had it not been for the Klan of one hundred years ago as well as today, this nation, no doubt, would have been a mulatto nation, and would have been another Haiti.

The so-called Civil Rights Law has, and will, do more harm to destroy this great nation than any other law that has ever been enacted by the Congress of the United States. The Klan is not against Negroes or poverty-stricken white people, or other races voting in political elections. But there are some restrictions that should be placed on the qualifications of any person in determining their right to vote. It would not be wise to allow every person in this nation the right and privilege to cast his or her ballot simply because of race, color, or creed. There are thousands of white, as well as Negro people who are not capable or competent to cast an intelligent ballot. There are various reasons of which are: illiteracy, mental retardation, allegiance to a foreign power, or to the Communist world. And, when this great nation permits those abovementioned to cast his or her ballot, then, our nation will go his or her ballot, then, our nation will go like the Roman Empire and many other Iron Curtain countries that we have witnessed in the past quarter of a century.

Many of our people in this country have lost faith in the members of our Congress and other officials of our city, county and state governments. Because of losing faith, they have not taken an interest in the affairs of their country--the enemy known as Communism has taken advantage of this apathetic condition and is rapidly eating into the very foundations of our great country and its Constitution.

Do the white people have a single spokesman in Washington that the nation listens to? Where are the voices of the people who have been sent to the United States Congress and other public offices of this nation who have failed to respond to, and speak out against, the wrongs that have been done against our people, its government, and its Constitution?

This writer believes that any city or town in the south, north, east or west, can be made into another Selma, Alabama. Something is wrong when the Negro leadership, such as Martin Luther King (now deceased), was allowed to go over this country with a band of professional agitators and create confusion, instigate race prejudice, make use of the public buildings, streets, and highways, to promote his Communistic desires, as well as to dictate to the public officials of this nation, his One World thoughts and ideas.

To win his point, he resorted to the old Hitler maxim, "a master race," telling Negroes that they are superior to white people, with a determination to take this country from the white race--the race that has provided sustenance since its birth. He was permitted to harass public officials and police departments. He was permitted to violate local, state, county, and city laws without the local people having a voice in their government. His conduct and his methods and ways have been upheld and sponsored by certain high officials connected with state, federal and city governments.

We are dealing with a "way of life" in the manner in which people were raised in the South, north, east and west. It is the white man's life that is being affected--not the "bleeding heart" theologians, or the do-gooders who have fallen into the trap. Those who will profit are the enemy who are aiding and abetting King to destroy this great nation.

We urge the ministers of the gospel (gentlemen of the cloth) to recognize the Constitution of this great nation. Their field is not to co-mingle with the political affairs of the state; nor should it interfere with the social status of any race, color or creed; they should stay out of the racial issue now facing this great nation, otherwise, the public will lose faith in their spiritual leaders.

The Communist platform of 1928 has been practically enacted as the law of the land of this great nation by: 1) The abolition of the old system of race discrimination and full racial equality; 2) Abolition of all laws which resulted in segregation of Negroes, such as the Jim Crow laws; 3) Housing accommodation laws; 4) Laws of abolition which disfranchise the Negro on the basis of color, as well as forbidding integration of persons of different races, such as the Negro with the white, and preventing the Negro from attending general public schools or universities of this country; 5) Full and equal admittance of Negroes to all railway stations, waiting rooms, restaurants, hotels, and theatres; 6) Adoption and ratification of the U. N. Charter leading to one-world government--the greatest danger to America that ever existed; 7) Army, Navy and Marine units of the United States Government abolish all Jim Crow distinctions between white and black; 8) Equal opportunities for employment--for wages and hours, and working conditions for Negroes, as well as extending to foreign-born workers equal opportunities, equal to native-born citizens.

How far will this Communistic trend that has been adopted in this country extend?

Private property rights laws have been destroyed. Prior Federal Decisions, which have been recognized for a century or more, have been brushed aside by the Supreme Court of the United States.

and recognition has been given to the Communist platform of 1928. A deaf ear has been turned to the voices of our forefathers who wrote the greatest document that was ever conceived by man. The Constitution and the Bill of Rights have been brushed aside and the Communist Platform of 1928 has been substituted instead of the Bill of Rights of this great nation.

The vast majority of the people of this country have been misled and confused by the news media and other factors as to the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, and every time some overt act is committed, which in some way can be connected with a member of the Klan, the news media is crouched like the jungle tiger, ready to pounce upon it, and condemn all Klansmen and all Klan organizations.

For information to the public of the United States, there are more than forty (40)

separate and distinct Klan organizations in the United States, headed by different Imperial Wizards or Boards of Directors, which are not directly or indirectly connected with each other; and memberships of the others should not be condemned by the news media or the public for something done by any clandestine or spurious group.

The Klan, to this writer's knowledge, has never had a Billy Sol Estes, Alger Hiss, Dexter White, Bobby Baker, or Walter Jenkins infiltrated into it, and we trust there will never be this type of person admitted to the Invisible Empire.

Many people have asked: "What does the Klan oppose, and what does it stand for"? The Klan is opposed to any type of Communism or Socialism being promoted in this country.

The Klan opposes the U. N. Charter, and ratification of same, in every respect, because it will lead us down the road to a One-World Government.

The Klan opposes sending our soldiers into foreign countries, interfering with the internal affairs and the operations of other foreign countries. The Klan opposes the enactment of the Alaskan Mental Health Law.

The Klan opposes the enactment of any law pertaining to the disarmament of this country, which would facilitate the take-over by the Communists who will, no doubt, invade us from Mexico, Alaska, Cuba, and all air and water fronts.

The Klan opposes the enactment of any laws by the Federal Government that will interfere with the States' Rights, pertaining to the educational and social status of its citizens.

The Klan opposes the removal of the Holy Bible from all public schools in this country.

The Klan is now, and has always opposed dumping of alien people into this country under the immigration laws that now exist.

The Klan opposes the Federal Reserve System as it now is being operated, and it urges the United States Government to re-purchase the same from the money changers.

The Klan opposes the giveaway of the foreign aid as it is now operated. The Klan opposes, and has always opposed, the forced integration of white with black. The Klan opposes the present Civil Rights Bill, as well as the Voters' Rights Bill, and asks that it be repealed.

The Klan opposes many other things considered detrimental to the welfare of the citizens of this country and the preservation of its Constitutional government. Time and space does not permit us to go into detail on all of them.

The Klan urges the Courts of this land, as well as the United States Congress, to strictly abide by the Constitution of this Nation. The Klan urges Congress to enact a Constitutional Amendment prohibiting the Congress, or the Federal Government, from interfering with the social status of any citizen, or from interfering, in any manner, with the educational systems of the Sovereign States.

The Klan has, and always will, uphold, keep, and protect white womanhood and maintain white supremacy.

(Note--This is not to imply that the Klan will attempt to deprive any other race of equal opportunity under the law, by force or violence.)

The Klan urges each state, as well as the United States Government to establish and drill artesian wells throughout the nation

lth hidden diesel engines and purification lants to protect the public in case of vasion or war.

Because, within a very few hours' time, the electric, gas, and water systems of this country can be destroyed by an enemy, and the lives of the civil population, as well as the military will be endangered.

All members of the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan have taken a solemn oath and are bound to recognize the laws and are opposed to any violation of the laws of any city, state or federal government, regardless of their opinions as to whether the laws are good or bad.

While membership in the Ku Klux Klan is open only to white American citizens the organization wages war on no individual or organization, regardless of race, color, or creed. It takes no part as an organization in any political or religious controversy and it concedes the right of every man to think, vote, and worship God as he pleases.

Because certain individuals at various times have committed acts of violence under cover of darkness, and shielded by masks and robes somewhat resembling the official regalia of the Ku Klux Klan, they have been classed as members of the organization. The Ku Klux Klan is a strictly law-abiding organization and every member is sworn to uphold the law at all times, and to assist officers of the law in preserving peace and order whenever the occasion may arise, and any member violating this oath will be banished forever from the organization.

The Klan will never tolerate in its membership any person who violates any criminal or civil law, but urges every Klansman of whatever Klan organization they may belong not to violate any law. On the other hand, we urge all to unite and use his or her efforts in the ballot box to correct wrongful acts.

Among the principles for which this organization stands, in addition to those already enumerated, are: Suppression of graft by public officeholders; Preventing the causes of mob violence and lynchings; Preventing unwarranted strikes by foreign agitators; Sensible and patriotic immigration laws; Sovereignty of states' rights under the Constitution; Separation of church and state; Freedom of speech and press, a freedom of such that does not strike at or imperil our government or the cherished institutions of our people.

The Ku Klux Klan of today rides on, not upon, the backs of faithful steeds, but in the mind, heart and soul of every true, white,

American citizen who loves our great country and who glories in the name America, and who has the loyalty of a grateful son to perpetually memorialize the heroism of our fathers and transmit the boon of our priceless heritage untarnished, uncorrupted, and unstained, to the generations who follow us, so that the lustre of our age may increase in splendor. For he who forgets the heroes of the past is basely unworthy of the blessings of the present, and he should be forgotten by posterity.

The objects of this Order shall be to unite white male persons, native-born Gentile citizens of the United States of America, who owe no allegiance of any nature or degree to any foreign government, nation, institution, sect, ruler, person or people; whose morals are good; whose reputations and vocations are respectable; whose habits are exemplary; who re of sound minds and who are eighteen years or more of age, under a common oath into a brotherhood of strict regulations; to cultivate and promote patriotism toward our civil government.

This Order is an institution of chivalry, humanity, justice and patriotism; embodying in its genius and principles all that is chivalric in conduct, noble in sentiment, generous in manhood and patriotic in purpose. Its peculiar objectives are: First, to protect the weak, the innocent, and the defenseless from the indignities, wrongs and outrages of the lawless, the violent and the brutal; to relieve the injured and the oppressed; to succor the suffering and unfortunate, especially widows and orphans. Second, to protect and defend the Constitution of the United States of America, and all laws passed in conformity thereto, and to protect the states and the people thereof from all invasion of their rights from any source whatsoever.

The white American people now face the stark reality of barricades in the streets and the arming of every home against black Negro race riots. We are at war! This war is the deadliest of all wars for it is both racial and religious.

For the second time since 1866, the sole issue to be decided is whether or not the purity of the white Caucasian race will continue to exist, not only here in America but all over the world. These assaults upon the white Christians are financed and led by brown-race Asiatic Communist Jews whose sole loyalty is to World Jewism and to Israel. Either the white race will emerge a more splendid race than ever before to lead all civilization upwards, or, mongrelized with the blacks, we shall descend in the scale of human existence to roam in negroidal jungles like the ox, where both races become the slaves of the cunning brown-race Jew.

It is a foregone conclusion that if the white man loses this fight to the death, there will be no more Christianity. That is why the white man will never lose the fight.

THE KU KLUX KLAN ALONE

In spite of torrents of smear and accusations of race hatred, the worst enemies of this noble, Christian religious order must admit that the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan has already saved America from a Mulatoo citizenship. The Klan stands ready to do it again! And this time, in 1974, there is no South, no North, no East, no West. All America is threatened with this eternal blood-curse of God!

complete devotion to the Fiery Cross of Jesus Christ, because of the complete adherence to His teachings wherein He said, in St. John 9: "While I am in the World, I am the Light of the World"--the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan is the only organization of men and women in the world dedicated to preserving this blood purity for every white Caucasian. The KKKK now numbering more than 250,000 strong has sworn the most solemn of oaths that it will die to a man and to a woman before thieving Scalawag politicians shall cause this terrible curse of God to fall upon us.

RALLY OF THE KLANS

White Americans today are flocking to the meetings and open-air rallies of the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, just as their ancestors did among the Klans of Scotland for over 1000 years. They are now joining the Klan by the thousands every week--both men and women.

The daily tyrannies against white Christians by our Communist-dominated Government and our outrageous Federal Courts have forced together the Protestant White Christian as never before. The beatings and gassings of white citizens by U. S. Marshals at the University of Mississippi brought the Klan thousands of members. The Jew-Communist led march on Washington accounted for even more.

WHY? WHY? WHY?

Because Protestant Christians are the only free Christians in the world--free from the domination of an alien and papal clergy with foreign ideologies that are completely un-American. The recent Pope of Rome had the impudence to inform the world that the rich nations must support the poor. That is pure Welfare State. Protestant white Christians will never drink the black broth of negroism that a Communist Government is forcing to their lips. The Negro race, lowest of all the races among humans, will never be accepted as the social equal of the white man. The two races cannot exist side by side and they can never mix. It is against every law of God and of Nature. Once contaminated, the blood stream can never be re-purified. One drop of Negro blood in a white man's veins does not create another white man. It creates a Negro, forever kinking the hair, flattening the nose, and thickening the lips. Also it forever dulls the intellect, mixing that which has contributed 95 per cent of all the benefits to human progress with that which in 5000 years has contributed absolutely nothing.

ASK HISTORY THESE QUESTIONS

1. Did you ever read a book, a newspaper, or even a sign in the Negro language?

He has none. In 5000 years he never had a thought of tenderness or love that the other races of the earth thought worthy of preserving.

2. Did you ever enter a city or even a magnificent structure erected by the Negro?

Never! He has no art, nor architecture, just as he has no literature. Placed by God in the richest of all continents in timber and marble he never sawed a tree or chipped a block of stone. He never built a house save of sticks and mud.

Here, in America, he has been thrown into the highest culture in the world, with every opportunity to advance, for 300 years. His contributions to human welfare are not the weight of a feather and they never will be.

He has never ruled himself. His morals, his record of crime and disease has never been so debauched by all the races of mankind put together. Government figures show that more than 90 per cent of all venereal disease is carried by the Negro and that over 92 per cent of all children born out of wedlock are Negroes. Both they and their lecherous parents are living off the dole of the white man, in exchange for the purchased bloc vote sold to crooked politicians. The only race which can approach the Negro in complete lack of morals, based upon Christian standards, is that of the leprous Jew--the Negroes' sponsor. It is these two racial minorities now lately joined by the slaves of a foreign Roman Catholic Pope, who have joined hands in an unholy alliance to rule and destroy America. Our precious Constitution has been ripped to shreds, our base Congress bought to a man, to impress upon Protestant white Christians an enslavement that surpasses in barbarism the combined obscenities and cruelties of the Talmud and the Holy Inquisition of Rome. These vile religions have actually gained control of the governing bodies of Protestant faiths. We behold today the highest degree of treason in the vested clergy of our country who have bartered the Fiery Cross of Christ for money changers' gold and silver.

THE KLAN DOES NOT HATE

Full knowledge that these evil practices are destroying our Country and its precious Government has driven the Protestant white Christian together. We now know that the greatest group of salesmen we have for our cause are the Kennedys, the Martin Luther Kings, the Jake Javitses, the Goldwaters, and all the swine rabbis of Jewism. Daily they make our task easier and more sure of success.

The Klan is not anti-Catholic. It pities all Catholics in their foreign papal enslavement and prays that they may be free of it. But above all, the Klan is pro-Protestant, the only form of Christianity which can be free and 100 per cent American.

The Klan is not anti-Negro. It is pro-White and will never consent to be ruled by any member of an inferior race. It believes and knows that the solution of all racial problems lies in returning the Negro to his own habitation--Africa.

The Klan is not anti-foreign. It is pro-American and as such will not accept into membership any but a native-born American.

Mark well what the Klan says to you, Protestant Americans:--"The most profound and sacred word in all history is the word 'race.'

Race is the ancestral soul of any people that alone rules its destiny. The wrecks of every civilization in all history began with racial degeneracy or the lowering of the standards of racial values. Civilization is only a name. Race is the cause of civilization."

WHAT THE KLAN DEMANDS!

The Klan will never cease its resistance until every Unconstitutional Act passed by every Legislative body has been repealed and repudiated.

The Klan welcomes to our land as it always has done those splendid members of the Nordic Anglo-Saxon, the Teutonic, the Gallic races, all classed as White Caucasian. But The Great Melting Pot of our citizenry was never meant to be a Garbage Can from the scum of Central Europe and Asia which numbers the bulk of the Jewish and the Anti-Christians.

The Klan demands the expulsion of more than eight millions of these latter peoples who are here illegally, with full reinstatement and enforcement of our ancient Immigration Laws.

The Klan demands immediate repeal of the National Banking Act called the Federal Reserve, and the return of our money into the hands of the U. S. Government instead of those of private banker usurers by whom we are now swindled of over 12 Billions annually in interest on the National debt.

The Klan demands the Congress exercise its full powers under the Constitution in removing all Appellate Jurisdiction of the Supreme Court in all matters pertaining to Education and Religion, leaving those issues to the Supreme Courts of the States.

The Klan demands the repeal of the 16th Amendment to our Constitution pertaining to graduated Income Tax which robs our citizens the fruits of our labors and of our substance to the benefit of both national and world-wide drones.

The Klan demands complete repeal of all foreign Aid that are not bona fide security ans at interest to any foreign power and complete withdrawal from the body of the United Nations, with its removal from United States territory.

The Klan demands complete repeal of all Civil Rights enactments as Unconstitutional and Communistic, having no place in a free society of free men with freedom of choice in their associations in all things.

The Klan demands the immediate repeal of Communications Act of 1934 and the removal nature which belong to all the people, being gifts of God like the sunshine, from the hands of any one religious group, in particular any group classified as non-Christian.

The Ku Klux Klan is determined to become once again the dominant political force in our glorious country

Above all things, the Klan pledges to its every member an unwavering program of Americanism solely under the Constitution, with public condemnation of any public official who will dare to propose any act not in strict conformity to that precious document and the Flag of our Country which so represents it.

Finally, the Klan will demand stricter laws for the removal of any holder of an office of public trust of law enforcement who dares to deviate from the role of public servant and usurps the role of public master. We, the people, are the sole masters of this America and its Government.

The death knell of the Police State, the Welfare State, Communist State, the Alien State, has struck in this Constitutional Republic. We, the Protestant Christian citizens, will never harm nor oppress any Minority Groups in the free exercise of their beliefs. But we warn them never to try again to force us to conform to those beliefs through a treasonous Judiciary if they are alien or unconstitutional.

We are taking back our Country--politically, legally, socially, and economically, and religiously and financially. All who don't like it--GET OUT! All who can qualify to the requirements of this splendid heritage of the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan--COME IN!

WHITE SUPREMACY BY DIVINE RIGHT

You have heard of the "Divine Right of Kings" or royalty. They claim this right of succession to the throne was given to them by the Creator (God). This also applies to the Pope, head of the Roman Catholic church and many others.

The white race also claims this right because our Creator placed white people in the north temperate zone and imposed upon them requirements for survival that was not imposed upon the black race who inherited the jungles of equatorial Africa. The Negro was not required to have any more than the energy and intelligence to escape the jungle beasts and gather his food which grew wild and in abundance. This was not our doing but that of our Creator.

The Negro had one of the richest countries in the world but never had a language nor did he ever build a skyscraper and for hundreds of years he had diamonds pushing up between his toes and did not have sense enough to pick them up and recognize them as precious stones.

His is the only race in the world today that is still eating its own people. God made the different races with different languages and different colors, which he had a reason for doing, and man can not change what God created. The Negroe's characteristics are quite different from that of the white man.

History does not record that the white man ever went into the jungles of Africa and captured these people and sold them into slavery-- it was his own people and his own tribe who were the slave traders.

The author recommends that every American should read some of the great books written by Thomas Dixon, such as, The Clansman, in which the film "Birth of a Nation" was produced and it was perhaps the greatest film ever made; The Leopard Spots, The Flaming Sword, The Black Hood, The Traitor, The Southerner, The Man in Gray, and The Fall of a Nation. Dixon wrote twenty-eight books and, in my opinion, he was a genius unparalleled. In retrospect, Dixon seemed to have had an uncanny insight as to the future.

The author himself has written a factual book, Choose Your Side, which will soon be distributed in paperback at a cost of $6.00. This is a lengthy book of approximately 200 words revealing history and characterizations covering the period from 1215 until 1972 and with special stress on the Colonial period in America from President Abraham Lincoln to President Nixon. In this book the author gives the backgrounds of the Klan from its inception

915 and the part it played in the struggle for the white man's survival.

The reader will find this book quite complete and factual as no other history of the United States has ever been written. All of the facts which, taken separately might puzzle you, are linked together. You are brought from the Old Testament to the present! This is the boldest book of this century, historical-wise! The author has been a Klansman for fifty years and is an active attorney of forty years standing.

At this date, there is being filmed in California a picture titled "The Klansman" the cast of which includes actors Richard Burton and Lee Marvin and which also includes the Negro football player, O. J. Simpson. "The Klansman" is based on a novel written by William Bradford Huie, an Alabaman, who slants the theme in a derogatory fashion against the Ku Klux Klan.

There is available to everyone in this country a publication called "Liberty Lobby" which originates in Washington, D. C. and which gives complete details on Congressional matters, including if and how your congress or senator voted for, and/or against, any Bill placed before the House or Congress, and other pertinent details of what goes on in Washington.

Colonel Curtis B Dall, Chairman of "Liberty Lobby," is, in my opinion, a most dedicated American patriot, well versed in government affairs. He broadcasts weekly on Washington Radio and the writer highly recommends that you tune in; also, the writer recommends that every American subscribe to the "Liberty Lobby" letters publications by writing to: 300 Independence Avenue, S.E., Washington, D. C., 20003.

Conquer Or Submit

"If we wish to be free-- if we mean to preserve inviolate those inestimable privilages for which we have been so long contending-- if we mean not basely to abandon the noble struggle in which we have been so long engaged, and which we have pledged ourselves never to abandon until the glorious object of our contest shall be obtained, we must fight! I repeat it, sir, we must fight! An appeal to arms and to the God of Hosts is all that is left us!

They tell us, sir, that we are weak; unable to cope with so formidable an adversary. But when shall we be stronger? Will it be the next week, or the next year? Will it be when we are totally disarmed...?"

"Gentlemen may cry peace, peace-- but there is no peace. The war is actually begun!... Our brethren are already in the field! Why stand we here idle? What is it that gentlemen wish?
What would they have? Is life so dear or peace so sweet, as to be purchased at the price of chains and slavery?
Forbid it, Almighty God! I know not what course others may take; but as for me, give me liberty or give me death!" -Patrick Henry/March 23, 1775

The second American Revolution has begun. But will there be a second war for Independance? Will the American people cowardly consent to tyranny in 1976 or conquer as the Valiant American Colonists did in 1776? The choice is yours.

FOR CHRIST, FAMILY, AND FOR FREEDOM

BECOME AN OFFICIAL SUPPORTER OF THE
NATIONAL KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN TODAY!

The "Invisible Empire" is a secret Christian, Patriotic, Fraternal order dedicated to the preservation of our Christian, Anglo-Saxon culture. It has never sought, nor never will seek support from large industries or political organizations. It depends entirely on the support the Empire receives from the middle class worker who is concerned for the welfare of his family and the deteriorating condition of his country; the same who compose the membership of the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan.

If you are a dedicated American and wish to do something positive for your Culture and your Country, turn your phony federal reserve notes into weapons against the enemies of your God, Race, and Freedom. The Crusade against the Anti-Christ forces in our land depends on your support!

"To the restoration of our Constitutional Republic, to the defence of individual freedom and to the preservation of our American heritage, we pledge our lives, our fortunes and our sacred honor."

INFORMATIVE NOTE

9/5/74

The attached states that annual National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan (NKKKK) rally was held at Stone Mountain, Georgia, on 8/31/74. NKKKK imperial wizard, James R. Venable, was the master of ceremonies. Rally was highlighted by ceremonial cross burning. 300-325 persons were in attendance. No violence occurred.

At NKKKK Imperial Board Meeting on 9/1/74, [redacted] of Lodi, Ohio, and [redacted] of Houston, Texas, were nominated as Presidential and Vice-Presidential candidates respectively, for the Presidential Elections to be held in 1976. The Klan will campaign against foreign aid, welfare; the United Nations, taxes, the present Chairman of the Federal Reserve Board, and the current system of regional government. [redacted] stated that Klan stands for separation of the races and he would seek black support on this issue.

The NKKKK is an anti-Negro, anti-Jewish, anti-Catholic and anti-foreign born consolidation of various Klans in southern states.

Dissemination made to the Criminal Division (Internal Security Section, Special Litigation Unit) and Civil Rights Division of the Department and Secret Service.

NATIONAL KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN (NKKKK)
CHARACTERIZATION OF SUBVERSIVE ORGANIZATION
EXTREMIST MATTER

The National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Incorporated, (NKKKK), a consolidation of various klan groups, was granted a charter in De Kalb County, Georgia, in November, 1963. The NKKKK was chartered as a patriotic, secret, social, and benevolent order; however, in December, 1963, the NKKKK issued a statement of its program which indicated the organization to be anti-Negro, anti-Jewish, anti-Catholic, and anti-foreign born. The NKKKK and its affiliate groups purportedly promote white Christian Americanism and combat communism. An annual NKKKK rally and cross burning has been held on Labor Day Weekend in Stone Mountain, Georgia, on the property of NKKKK Imperial Wizard James R. Venable.

Some klan members and leaders have been involved in atrocities including beatings, bombings, and murders, and have engaged in activities seeking to deny others their constitutional rights.

NOTE:

Atlanta's nitel stated that [redacted]
[redacted] of the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan (NKKKK) of Ohio, did not have NKKKK sanction when he announced that he and his Klan vice presidential running mate would campaign for national office. Nitel also stated that [redacted] Louisiana [redacted] of the NKKKK, would not be welcome at any further NKKKK rallies because of the fiery speech he gave at Stone Mountain on 8/31/74. Atlanta was closing their investigation with this communication.

instructed that all members of Klavern 102, New York State Realm, NKKKK, Pine Bush, NY, be identified conducting limited investigations to determine whether they possess a propensity for violence and hence establishing whether a full investigation is warranted in accordance with Section 122 of the Manual of Instructions.

Enclosed herewith for the Bureau are four copies of an investigative summary dated and captioned as above.

Limited inquiry has determined subject's activity does not warrant further investigation at this time and he does not meet current ADEX criteria.

DATE 8/23/04 BY SP/29/JL

[Redacted]
EXTREMIST MATTER-KLAN

This investigation is based on information that [redacted] in view of his affiliation with the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan (NKKKK), a characterization of which is contained in the appendix hereto, is engaged in activities which could involve a violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 241 (Conspiracy Against Rights of Citizens); Section 245 (Federally Protected Activities), Civil Rights Act of 1968; or related Civil Rights Statutes.

[Redacted]

[Redacted] was initiated on June 9, 1973, into Klavern 102, New York State Realm, NKKKK, Pine Bush, New York, but did not begin regular attendance at NKKKK meetings until March 7, 1974. [Redacted] subsequently has attended five NKKKK meetings.

During his NKKKK affiliation, [Redacted] has not been engaged in or made any comments advocating or promoting violence, acquisition of weapons or klan terrorism.

APPENDIX

EXTREMIST MATTER-KLAN

The United Klans of America, Inc. (UKA), Knights of the Ku Klux Klan was chartered in 1961 at Atlanta, Georgia. It was formed as a result of splits in and consolidation of other Klan groups. In July, 1961, the United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Incorporated, merged with the Alabama Knights, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan. The merged organization was headed by [REDACTED]. In October of 1961, a majority of the Klaverns of the United States Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, were merged with the UKA and [REDACTED] continued as the leader.

The UKA is the dominant Klan group in the United States with headquarters located at Tuscaloosa, Alabama, and members in several states. [REDACTED] of Tuscaloosa, Alabama, continues to be the Imperial Wizard of the organization. The stated aims and purposes of the UKA are the promotion of Americanism, white supremacy, and segregation of the races. Like other Klan organizations it is anti-Negro, anti-Semitic and anti-Catholic.

Klan members and leaders have been involved in atrocities including beatings, bombings, and murders, and have engaged in activities seeking to deny others their constitutional rights.

On September 16, 1974, a confidential source of the Columbia Division of the FBI, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan (NKKKK), a characterization of which is contained in the appendix hereto, held a rally on Cedar Lane Road in Greenville, South Carolina, on September 14, 1974, starting at 8:00 PM.

The source advised that about thirty Klansmen, twenty of them wearing Klan robes, attended this rally. Seven of these Klansmen were from the State of Georgia. There were one hundred twenty-five spectators. The source stated that [redacted] of South Carolina, a (first name unknown) [redacted] and a third unknown white male from Georgia, all spoke at this rally. None of the speakers made any inflammatory type statements and their speeches all centered around the need for building up their Klan Organization.

There were no incidents and no arrests were made. The rally was concluded with a cross burning.

Re: Richelieu Gardens
CORNWELLS HEIGHTS, PA.

Dear [Redacted]

I am writing you in regard to our telephone conversation about Richelieu Gardens, an apartment complex located in Bensalem Township, Bucks County, Pennsylvania. During the past six months there has been an increasing number of incidents arising out of racial problems in this apartment complex.

The apartment was built under the 236 HUD program for low and moderate income families. It was opened in November, 1973 and presently has 330 occupied apartments, consisting of about 1,200 persons. About 25-30% of the occupants are black.

Since the apartment opened there have been six cross burnings on the apartment property, indiscriminate shooting at apartments from passing cars, and threats by certain white persons that the apartment complex will be "leveled". There is also an active Klu Klux Klan in the area with some possible connection to the problems in Richelieu Gardens.

The Pennsylvania State Police have been investigating numerous complaints over the past few months. Recently, they brought the problem to the attention of the Governor's Civil Tension Task Force. After an initial investigation the Task Force decided to ask the United States attorney's office to investigate this matter for possible civil rights violations. We believe the problem is serious and has the potential to destroy the apartment complex if allowed to continue. We further believe that both state and Federal resources will be necessary to resolve this problem and end the violations of persons' civil rights.

I would appreciate your conducting an investigation into this situation as soon as possible. We will be happy to meet with your staff and share information which we have gathered so far.

Very truly yours,

Barry S. Kohn
Deputy Attorney General

CORNWELLS HEIGHTS, PA. -

On September 26, 1974, [REDACTED] Investigator, U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD), advised as follows:

Richelieu Gardens is an apartment complex located in Bensalem Township, Bucks County, Pa. The final closing on the development was July 12, 1974. The sponsor and general contractor for the project was Richelieu Associates. They have a limited partnership and are located at 1352 Easton Road, Warrington, Pa. The principal in the project is [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] The mortgagor is the sponsor; the mortgagee is the Continental Bank, Norristown, which extended $6,310,800. It is a HUD insured mortgage. The HUD Project Number is 023-44134. There are 352 apartments in the project, consisting of 23 different buildings. Richelieu Gardens is managed by [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] a co-partnership. The project was constructed under the 236 HUD program, which is for low-rent housing. HUD has three areas of interest, and they are as follows:

1. HUD insures the mortgagee monies.
2. HUD sends supplemental money to the mortgagee, which decreases the money otherwise required by the project to meet its expenses.
3. HUD will subsidize about 20 percent of the tenants own rents, which goes to Richelieu Gardens, the rentor.

On September 27, 1974, [REDACTED] Detective Lieutenant, Bensalem Township Police Department, Cornwells Heights, Pa., which covers the Richelieu Gardens Apartments, furnished the following information:

UNKNOWN SUBJECTS;
RESIDENTS OF RICHELIEU
GARDENS APARTMENTS,
CORNWELLS HEIGHTS, PA. -
VICTIMS

The Richelieu Gardens Apartments, located on Bensalem Boulevard, Cornwells Heights, Pa., is a HUD sponsored apartment complex for low to middle income families. It is now occupied by approximately 35 to 40 percent blacks.

Approximately six months ago, a series of cross burnings began at the apartments with the last occurring about two months ago. These crosses were primarily burned at the entrance to the apartments with no property damage resulting. It is believed these crosses were burned initially as a protest against the superintendent [redacted] by the Ku Klux Klan as Klan literature was found at the scenes of these burnings. Subsequent cross burnings were apparently aimed at the civic association, an organization of mostly white residents, to protest their actions in reporting all actions to the police department.

He stated, in his opinion, the initial source of these burnings was possibly racially motivated; however, it was continued aimed at the management of the apartments. He believes members of the Ku Klux Klan reside in the apartments.

Approximately two weeks ago, a shot was fired at one of the apartment buildings from a high powered rifle. Investigation into this matter is continuing and an arrest in this incident is possible. He stated this incident was not racially motivated and he knew of no other shootings or threats.

Lieutenant [redacted] advised he did not feel these actions were directed against any individual resident of the apartments or any race of people in general. He described the current situation at the apartments as quiet noting the civic association recently met with representatives of the Klan and a local newspaper reporter and assurances were given that there would be no more problems.

A characterization of the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc. (NKKKK) is attached in the appendix pages of this Letterhead Memorandum (LHM).

On December 26, 1973, a confidential source of known reliability advised that at a meeting of the Bucks County Klavern on November 27, 1973, it was mentioned that the Richelieu Apartments on Street Road in Bensalem Township were renting to blacks and it was suggested the apartments be picketed. Source advised that a cross was reportedly burned at the apartments on December 11, 1973.

On February 5, 1974, this source advised another cross was reportedly burned at the apartments on January 28, 1974 by unknown Klan members. On May 1, 1974, source advised a cross was placed at the Richelieu Gardens during the latter part of April, but had failed to ignite. It was left at the apartments for a week and then allegedly ignited. A former Klan member was questioned by local police and released.

UNKNOWN SUBJECTS;
GARDENS APARTMENTS,
CORNWELLS HEIGHTS, PA.
VICTIMS

On May 20, 1974, source advised a cross was allegedly burned on May 4, 1974 at the Richelieu Apartments by klan members.

On July 9, 1974, source advised two members of the klan, one a resident of the Richelieu Apartments, were to meet with a reporter from the Bucks County Courier to complain about living conditions at the apartments. Source advised the meeting allegedly took place on July 14, 1974 and was reported as a success.

On July 31, 1974, source advised a klan member was contacted by the reporter from the Courier during the latter part of July to report that an automobile had been burned and literature distributed at the apartments. Members of the klan denied any knowledge of or participation in this event and decided to discontinue all activities at the apartments.

On August 13, 1974, source advised the leader of the klan and another member attended a meeting with various township officials on or about July 29, 1974, and pledged to cooperate with police and apartment officials and promised no more harassment or burnings.

On September 30, 1974, source advised his overall opinion of klan activities at the Richelieu Gardens Apartments is that it has been disorganized, not directed at any single person or for any specific reason. Source noted three alleged residents of the apartments were, during these events, members of the klan. Two of these are no longer members and the third, [redacted] who was most active in the cross burnings, no longer lives in the apartments. Source advised no mention has been made of the apartments in recent months and the klan generally has lost interest in the apartments.

SOUTH CAROLINA REALM,
RALLIES HELD SEPTEMBER 27-28, 1974,
GREENVILLE, S. C.

On October 1, 1974, a confidential source of the Columbia Office of the FBI, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that on September 27, 1974, at 8 p.m., there were seven Klansmen and four spectators present for a rally to be held on Highway 123 in the vicinity of the Greenville-Pickens speedway. The source stated that due to weather conditions, this rally which was being sponsored by the NKKKK, Incorporated, South Carolina Realm (a characterization which is attached in the appendix hereto) was canceled.

The source advised that on the evening of September 28, 1974, at 8 p.m., the NKKKK held a rally in the vicinity of the Greenville-Pickens speedway along Highway 123. The source said there were approximately 20 robed Klansmen present and 80 spectators. The source advised that [redacted] of Williamson, South Carolina, and [redacted] of the Ku Klux Klan, Realm of South Carolina, were the featured speakers. The source said both speakers talked of the Klan's growing strength and of the Klan's move into politics. They both mentioned that the Klan was running a candidate for Presidency of the United States. The source advised that there were no incidents and there were no inflammatory comments made by either of the speakers.

EXTREMIST MATTER

The National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Incorporated, (NKKKK), a consolidation of various Klan groups, was granted a charter in De Kalb County, Georgia, in November, 1963. The NKKKK was chartered as a patriotic, secret, social, and benevolent order; however, in December, 1963, the NKKKK issued a statement of its program which indicated the organization to be anti-Negro, anti-Jewish, anti-Catholic, and anti-foreign born. The NKKKK and its affiliate groups purportedly promote white Christian Americanism and combat communism. An annual NKKKK rally and cross burning has been held on Labor Day Weekend in Stone Mountain, Georgia, on the property of NKKKK Imperial Wizard James R. Venable.

Some Klan members and leaders have been involved in atrocities including beatings, bombings, and murders, and have engaged in activities seeking to deny others their constitutional rights.

DATE 2-21-88 BY SP/ANNUAL RALLY OF THE NATIONAL KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN (NKKKK) AT STONE MOUNTAIN,
GEORGIA, AUGUST 31, 1974

A source who has provided reliable information in the past, advised on September 16, 1974, that [redacted] of the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of Ohio, did not have the sanction of the National Knights to announce that he was running for the office of the President of the United States. This plan was solely the idea of [redacted] who wanted to get some publicity out of the Klan rally at Stone Mountain, Georgia. He made this announcement on his own and did not have the approval of Imperial Wizard, James R. Venable. (A characterization of the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan is contained in the appendix hereto.)

[redacted] who is [redacted] running mate for Vice President also did not have Klan sanction to run for the office. Ohio

Source further advised that as a result of the fiery speech of [redacted] of the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan headquartered at Denham Springs, Louisiana, Venable told him that he would not be welcome at any more Klan rallies. Denham Springs

NATIONAL KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN (NKKKK)

The National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Incorporated, (NKKKK), a consolidation of various klan groups, was granted a charter in De Kalb County, Georgia, in November, 1963. The NKKKK was chartered as a patriotic, secret, social, and benevolent order; however, in December, 1963, the NKKKK issued a statement of its program which indicated the organization to be anti-Negro, anti-Jewish, anti-Catholic, and anti-foreign born. The NKKKK and its affiliate groups purportedly promote white Christian Americanism and combat communism. An annual NKKKK rally and cross burning has been held on Labor Day Weekend in Stone Mountain, Georgia, on the property of NKKKK Imperial Wizard James R. Venable.

Some klan members and leaders have been involved in atrocities including beatings, bombings, and murders, and have engaged in activities seeking to deny others their constitutional rights.

(RALLIES SCHEDULED
OCTOBER 12, 1974 - GREENVILLE, S. C.;
OCTOBER 13, 1974 - SALUDA, S. C.)

On October 4, 1974, a source of the Columbia Division of the FBI who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Incorporated (characterization of which is attached hereto in appendix) has scheduled rallies as follows:

October 12, 1974 - On Cedar Lane Road
Greenville, South Carolina

October 13, 1974 - Saluda, South Carolina

The source advised that the rally ~~on~~ scheduled for October 12, 1974, at Greenville, South Carolina, will be to protest the stabbing of a caucasian male high school student in Greenville, S. C., during the week of October 1, 1974, by a Negro student.

Enclosed for Newark is one copy of re airtel and LHM in view of fact [REDACTED] resides Trenton, N.J.

On 8/28/74, [REDACTED] advised information had been discussed at a recent meeting of the Bucks County Klavern that two teenagers were taken to a Klan rally at [REDACTED] [REDACTED] residence in New York by [REDACTED].
One of these members was allegedly only 14 years of age. This discussion resulted in several members being upset about "kids" being brought into the Klan and it was decided among the members that these two individuals would not be admitted to the Klan. Subjects' names were mentioned to source but were not familiar.

It is pointed out [redacted] has previously advised Klan applications and members joining during the summer months of 1974 and continuing to the present time in the Bucks County Klavern are encouraged to use fictitious names.

A review of the current Coles Directory for Suburban Philadelphia revealed no listing for GARY BREECE on 507 East or West Bridge Street, Morrisville, Pa. No listing was found for a family by the name of BREECE on Bridge Street. No listing could be found in the current Lower Bucks Telephone Directory. Similar reviews were conducted re CHARLES HILL and 625 Spring Avenue, Morrisville, Pa., also producing negative results.

On 9/18/74, telephone number [redacted] listed in referenced communication as the telephone number for GARY BREECE, was called by SA [redacted] and utilizing a pretext of a friend trying to contact BREECE, it was determined he is not known at this number and further that this number is in the [redacted] residence.

On 10/4/74 [redacted] advised there had been indications at a recent meeting of the Bucks County Klavern primarily put forth by [redacted] that allegedly a new Klavern was being established in Morrisville, Pa. Source stated there appeared to be very little substance or truth to these comments as [redacted] could not provide additional details. Source advised subjects have not been further identified and have not attended any meetings of the Bucks County Klavern. Source advised if subjects were in fact teenagers, they would not be allowed to attend meetings.

On 10/16/74, [redacted], Morrisville, Pa., Police Department, advised she could locate no record identifiable with BREECE or HILL in her records. She further advised 507 East or West Bridge Street and 625 Spring Lane, Morrisville, are non-existent.

On 10/16/74, [redacted] advised comments were again made by [redacted] that a new Klavern was trying to get started in Morrisville but a meeting place could not be found. Source advised it is his opinion [redacted] is "planting" this information within the Bucks County Klavern to see what will occur. Source pointed out the proximity of Morrisville to the current meeting place and noted it would be impractical to establish another Klavern so close. Source stated no mention has been made of subjects and they have not attended any Klan meetings.

In view of subjects' ages, the fact they have not attended any meetings of the Klan, and the probability the names utilized are fictitious, further investigation would not be warranted and Philadelphia is considering these matters closed.

Information copy being furnished to Newark in view of possible interest in [redacted] Newark should utilize extreme caution regarding information re a Morrisville Klavern as Philadelphia source is of opinion [redacted] may be trying to identify an informant within the Bucks County Klavern by planting information.

On October 6, 1974, a source of the Columbia Division of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised public rallies were held on Saturday, October 5, 1974, and Sunday, October 6, 1974, both in West Columbia, South Carolina, by members of the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan Incorporated (NKKKK), South Carolina Realm, (a characterization of which is attached in the appendix hereto).

The source advised that on October 5, 1974, the rally began at 8:30 p.m. and ended at 10:30 p.m. There were 13 robed Klansmen present and 13 spectators. The speakers were [redacted] who spoke on politics in the Klan; [redacted] who spoke on Klan and Klaverns' need to organize; [redacted] from Newberry, South Carolina, who spoke on the subject of blacks getting everything over the past ten years and it was time for whites to start getting something. One application was received from a new prospective member, and there were no incidents.

The rally on October 6, 1974, began at 8:30 p.m. with 8 robed Klansmen and 75 spectators present. [redacted] from Williamston, South Carolina, and [redacted] all spoke about the Klan and about the situation in schools today. Four applications were received from prospective members, and there were no incidents during the rally. Many of the spectators were recognized as members of other Klan groups in the state of South Carolina. These individuals stated they were at the rally to discuss the various Klan groups in South Carolina working together instead ofickering.

On October 16, 1974, a source of the Columbia Division of the FBI, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan (characterization of which is attached hereto in the Appendix) held rallies as follows:

The National Klan rescheduled the Greenville rally for the night of October 11, 1974, which was held on Cedar Lane Road and started at 9:00 p.m. The rally was attended by 25 Klansmen and 50 spectators. The speakers were [redacted]

[redacted] spoke on the Klan and politics, while [redacted] spoke on the problem of integration in northern schools. No mention was made of the stabbing of a Caucasian male at a high school in Greenville, South Carolina, during the week of October 1, 1974, by a Negro student. It appears that this situation has quieted down. No incidents occurred and the rally ended at 11:00 p.m.

The National Klan held an impromptu rally at Saluda, South Carolina, on Saturday night, October 12, 1974, which was held on Highway 121, three miles north of Saluda, South Carolina. The rally started at 8:30 p.m. and was attended by nine Klansmen and three spectators. The public address system was inoperative, so the rally was called off. No cross was burned, no speeches were made and no incidents occurred.

By letter dated 8/21/74, Philadelphia, under the caption "Independent Ku Klux Klan of York, Pennsylvania, Et-Klan," furnished an LHM indicating that a rally was held in Pinchot State Park near York, 7/27/74. Bulet 9/11/74, in response to that communication, requested amended pages to the LHM to include characterization of the Independent Ku Klux Klan (IKKK). It appears that the LHM furnished with relet is a revised LHM concerning the same rally, only correcting the false impression given that IKKK was involved with or sponsored the rally.

ReLHM is being amended at the Bureau to include the first paragraph following characterization of the United Klans of America as set forth on page 1 of Philadelphia 8/21/74 LHM. This paragraph apparently was inadvertently omitted from the 11/6/74 LHM and should be added to Philadelphia copies. Philadelphia notify other offices receiving the LHM of this amendment.

It is noted that Bulet 9/11/74 pointed out that an FD-376 was not submitted with the 8/21/74 letter and Philadelphia was instructed to submit FD-376 with the amended LHM pages. Relet also failed to include FD-376 which should be furnished in future with all LHM's.

SOUTH CAROLINA REALM, (RALLIES HELD AT KENT CROSS ROADS, GEORGETOWN COUNTY, SOUTH CAROLINA)
OCTOBER 26 - 27, 1974

On October 28, 1974, a source of the Columbia Division of the FBI who has provided reliable information in the past, advised that the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Incorporated, characterization of which is attached in the appendix, held rallies at Kent Cross Roads, Georgetown, South Carolina, on October 26, 1974, and October 27, 1974. Location of site is approximately eight miles out of Georgetown, South Carolina, off U. S. Highway 17-A, between Georgetown, South Carolina, and Andrews, South Carolina.

On Saturday night, October 26, 1974, approximately 30 people attended the rally of which approximately ten wore Klan robes. The principal speakers were [redacted] and (First Name Unknown) [redacted]

[redacted] from Florence, South Carolina. Speeches generally concerned racial trouble in South Carolina schools. Mention was made of school trouble in Boston, Massachusetts. Emphasis was placed on increasing membership in the Klan. Speeches were generally anti-Rockefeller.

On Sunday evening, October 27, 1974, the National Knights rally was held at the same location. Approximately 35 people attended the rally, of which approximately ten wore Klan robes. Principal speakers were [redacted] [redacted] (phonetic), and [redacted]

[redacted] Florence, South Carolina. Speeches were similar in nature to those of the previous evening. On both evenings, a cross lighting ceremony was held. No incidents of violence occurred and no arrests were made.

NATIONAL KNIGHTS OF THE
KU KLUX KLAN (NKKKK)

On September 9, 1974, [redacted] advised that [redacted]

[redacted]
the characterization of which is attached in the appendix hereto, sent an invitation to [redacted] the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan (NKKKK), the characterization of which is attached to the appendix hereto to attend his Patriots Leadership conference in Missouri on September 21 and 22, 1974. Source stated that he doubted whether [redacted] would attend this function and that the Ohio NKKKK would not be represented.

On September 16, 1974 [redacted] advised that the Ohio NKKKK had a brief meeting in the Columbus, Ohio area on September 14, 1974 when [redacted] met with Klan Official [redacted]. Source advised that after this meeting, [redacted] returned to Northern Ohio to attend a meeting with Cleveland area klansmen and that he intended to repossess klan paraphernalia from the separated leaders of the Cleveland organization.

On September 22, 1974, [redacted] advised that [redacted]
[redacted] made several verbal threats against the Cleveland NKKKK
Chapter leadership concerning the retrieval of klan property.
Source added that [redacted] as well as other klansmen have made numerous threats against each other during the past, but no threats have ever been carried out.

On September 23, 1974, [redacted] telephonically contacted the Cleveland Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation and advised that [redacted] (a klansman from Cleveland, Ohio area) and reputed to be the leader of the Cleveland Chapter had been officially kicked out of the Klan in May of 1974. [redacted] stated that official notice of this fact with accompanying reasons for [redacted] expulsion would soon be released in the near future by Imperial Wizard JAMES VENABLE. [redacted] also advised that [redacted] along with two or three of his associates have been leveling threats against various klan members aligned with [redacted]

Sources whose identities are

RE: NATIONAL KNIGHTS OF THE
KU KLUX KLAN (NKKKK)

On September 25, 1974, [redacted] advised that [redacted] met with klansman [redacted] his residence in Lodi, Ohio on [redacted]. Source stated that the topic of discussion centered around the taking in of several new klansmen in the Cincinnati, Ohio area. Source/further advised that the Ohio NKKKK [redacted] was also present at this meeting.

Same source advised [redacted] that the Dayton Chapter under [redacted] has been reorganized under the leadership of [redacted]. Source advised that [redacted] with whom [redacted] has had a previous dispute, has been officially kicked out of the Klan and that no Klan organizations recognize him. Source stated that the Dayton unit is now loyal to [redacted] and gaining its strength again.

On October 4, 1974, [redacted] again telephonically contacted the Cleveland Office of the FBI and advised that he had taken what steps he could to deal with the problems that the Klan was currently experiencing in the Cleveland, Ohio area. [redacted] was referring to the current feud among members of the Cleveland Chapter and individuals loyal to him remaining in the Cleveland area.

[redacted] stated that he would issue a statement to the Cleveland newspapers during the next two weeks indicating action to be taken against the troublemakers in the Cleveland area. He stated that he felt this was necessary in order to clear himself and the state national organizations. [redacted] added that he wished to do away with the Cleveland Chapter of the Klan and to someday bring it directly under the state organization again.

On October 8, 1974, [redacted] advised that the Ohio NKKKK was currently not taking in any money and that it was currently at a financial standstill. Source stated that the usual members have not been sending any contributions or their required dues. Source stated that this has caused a cessation of Klan functions in Ohio for the time being.

[redacted] On October 15, 1974, [redacted] advised that [redacted] plans to conduct a Klan meeting at his residence on October 20, 1974 in order to bring up the subject of [redacted]

RE: NATIONAL KNIGHTS OF THE
KU KLUX KLAN (NKKKK)

[redacted] banishment before the top Ohio klan officers. If [redacted] does not appear at this meeting, [redacted] has stated that his banishment will automatically go into effect. Source also stated that [redacted] plans to initiate several new applicants into the klan at this function. Source added that [redacted] is tentatively scheduling a state board meeting within the next few weeks to be held at the residence of [redacted] in Columbus, Ohio. [redacted] feels that this meeting is necessary in order to demand more performance from his various klan officers throughout the state.

Source also added on this date that [redacted] had recently met with [redacted] both from the Cleveland Chapter of the NKKKK at his residence in Lodi, Ohio. There was no confrontation at this meeting, but [redacted] simply told these individuals that he intended to ban [redacted] from the Ohio klan.

On October 17, 1974, [redacted] advised that [redacted] has supposedly been in contact with a member of the National Caucus of Labor Committees (NCLC), a characterization of which is included in the appendix. Source advised that [redacted] has also bought several copies of NCLC literature, and that he has also reportedly called the NCLC for information using a false name.

On October 30, 1974, [redacted] advised that an Ohio NKKKK meeting was held at the residence of [redacted] in Lodi, Ohio on October 27, 1974. Source advised that this meeting was originally scheduled for October 20, 1974. At this meeting, [redacted] conducted a klan tribunal court for the banishment proceedings of Cleveland klansman [redacted]. Source stated that it was officially proclaimed at this time that [redacted] be banished for eternity from the NKKKK. Source also stated that the meeting concerned recent harassment of royal klan followers of [redacted] in the Cleveland, Ohio area by [redacted] and his associates. The discussion merely enumerated the recent harassment techniques and incidents in the Cleveland area and did not propose any klan or counter-violence.

RE: NATIONAL KNIGHTS OF THE KU
KLUX KLAN (NKKKK)

Source also advised that at the close of this discussion, [redacted] initiated two individuals into his organization. Source stated that [redacted] was upset with the poor attendance at this function, since he had hoped for new applicants from the Cincinnati and Columbus areas. [redacted] stated that it will be at least several months before another ceremony would be scheduled. Source stated that [redacted] also brought up the topic that he hoped to convene an Ohio State Board meeting at a klan meeting in the Columbus area in the near future.

Ohioan first klan presidential hopeful

CINCINNATI (AP)—Ohio's Grand Dragon of the Ku Klux Klan believes in recruiting without a mask at Ohio rallies.

Dale F. Reusch, 35, of Lodi, O., near Cleveland, was selected by the Klan at Atlanta, Ga., yesterday as its first candidate for the presidency of the United States in 1976.

James R. Venable, imperial wizard of the National Knights, said about 250 knights had gathered at Stone Mountain, Ga., over the weekend for the nomination.

"We feel that both the Republican and Democratic parties are the same," Venable said. "They haven't done anything to help the people of this country."

Reusch began conducting rallies in southwestern Ohio in 1972 bringing in Klan officials from New Jersey, Georgia, Alabama and other states.

Reusch said the Ohio Klan was trying to recruit young persons for two reasons. They were active politically and the voting age had been lowered from 21 to 18.

Reusch insisted klansmen wearing robes appear unmasked at rallies in Loveland Park near Cincinnati "because we don't have anything to hide."

Reusch declined to divulge the number of Ohio members saying it was a "secret."

"The state of Ohio," he said "is leading in the membership drive" over Klans in other states. "It also has the biggest potential for taking new members."

Reusch, fair-skinned, dark-eyed, black-haired and heavy set, works on a Ford Motor Co. assembly line in Brook Park. He insisted that Roman Catholics are being sought for membership "because they proved their patriotism to this country" and not a church in Rome.

Reusch was an unsuccessful write-in candidate in the Democratic primary election for governor.

RE:

NATIONAL KNIGHTS OF THE KU
KLUX KLAN (NKKKK)

[He also campaigned in 1972 for the American Independent party candidate for president, U. S. Rep. John Schmitz, of California.]

He said the Klan switched to the AIP when Gov. George C. Wallace of Alabama dropped out of the race.

Reusch said Klan recruitment in the North, particularly in Ohio, was successful because working people are turning against big government and the welfare state.

"Working people like me are turning conservative more than liberal," he said. "Although labor generally tends to support Democratic candidates."

Reusch chose Scott Nelson, a Houston Tex., natural gas company employee, as his vice presidential candidate, a Klan spokesman said.

Nelson, 35, is the Imperial Wizard of the Texas Fiery Knights and independent Klan group.

Lodi Man Heads KKK '76 Ticket

ATLANTA (UPI) — The National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan will run presidential and vice presidential candidates for the first time in 1976, and they have already chosen their men.

James R. Venable, imperial wizard, said Dale Reusch, 35, of Lodi, O., grand dragon in Ohio, received the presidential nomination and chose Scott Nelson, 35, of Houston, the imperial wizard of the Texas Fiery Knights, as his running mate.

They were chosen as the Klan wound up its annual convention Monday.

VENABLE said this is the first time the Klan "has ever sponsored a candidate for national office."

He said the Klan will campaign against foreign aid, welfare, the United Nations, taxes, the present chairman of the Federal Reserve Board and the current system of "regional government."

Venable said the Klan chose its candidates early "because we have to comply with each state's law and get enough signatures."

"We'll get them on the ballot by petition like George Wallace did," Venable said. "We wanted to get ready in time to have all our contracts made for our petitions."

REUSCH, works on an assembly line of an automobile plant in Lodi.

He was an unsuccessful write-in candidate in the Democratic primary election for governor after his petition was ruled off the ballot for lack of the needed 1,000 signatures.

He also campaigned actively in 1972 for the American Independent Party candidate for president, U. S. Rep. John Schmitz, California.

About 250 persons attended the Klan meeting at Stone Mountain, where the group has met for the past 45 years.

RE:

NATIONAL KNIGHTS OF THE KU

The Kandidate

IT SHOULD COME as no surprise that the Ku Klux Klan has big eyes for the White House.

This year, for the first time, the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan decided to run a presidential candidate, and tapped an Ohioan, Dale Reusch of Lodi, to run in 1976.

Mr. Reusch, who works at an automobile plant, was picked — presumably by secret ballot — at the Klan's annual convention at Stone Mountain, Ga.

James R. Venable, the imperial wizard, said Mr. Reusch will spearhead the Klan's campaign against foreign aid, welfare, the United Nations, taxes, the chairman of the Federal Reserve Board and the current system of "regional government."

The Reusch candidacy raises a burning political question: Is America ready for a President who runs around in silk sheets and pointed hats?

Not kwite.

Ohioan may become KKK imperial wizard

By ED HEINKE, Press Ohio Bureau

LODI—Introducing Dale R. Reusch, a German name pronounced like "Royesh," aged 35, the Medina County ex-farm boy who has been nominated to head the first national ticket of the invisible empire of the knights of the Ku Klux Klan.

You may be hearing a lot about this six-foot-one, 285-pounder in the 1976 national election, an imposing figure in his gorgeous green and purple satin robe, topped by a pointed green hood, lighting 36-foot fiery crosses at rallies and flaying the major candidates.

Reusch's rise in the klan has been rapid since he was swayed by Imperial Wizard James R. Venable at a Brunswick rally in 1965. He became grand dragon of Ohio only two years later, one of only 14 in the U.S. and head KKK man in the state.

Now, not only has he been chosen to head the Klan's national ticket with Scott Neilson, Houston, Tex., also 35, but he is reported to be the man most likely to succeed Venable at imperial headquarters, Stone Mountain, Ga.

Klan talk has it that Venable, 69, is ready to call it quits after a prostate operation at Stone Mountain last June. At least this was discussed at the meeting in which Reusch was nominated at the palace by the giant granite rock near Atlanta.

Actually Reusch hasn't accepted the nomination yet and won't until he submits his program at the next high command meeting at Stone Mountain in December.

"I want to see what kind of financial support and backing I can expect not only from the organization but from all other conservative and right wing free thinking pure American organizations, including the workingman and yes, even the blacks," said Reusch.

Reusch, has a wife, Valerie, 33, who is a housewife and two children, Mark, 13 and Ricky, 8. They live in an ordinary frame house at 220 Gaylord St. that would bring $15,000 on today's market in Lodi. Reusch works at the Ford Engine Plant on Brookpark Rd. in Cleveland as an engine tester.

He has the regular klan philosophy about outlawing all communists and limiting klan membership to native-born loyal U.S. citizens 21 years old, white gentle persons of temperate habits with Christian beliefs and believing in white supremacy and Americanism."

mpney in politics when he filed for governor in the coming Ohio election, becoming disqualified because of lack of valid signatures.

He says the Klan has about 5000 members in Ohio, with 900 in Cincinnati, 600 in Cleveland, 200 in Columbus and the rest around the state, but that many are delinquent in their $24 a year dues.

The Ohio Klan took in about $5000 last year, he said, with half going to the grand dragon for state office expenses and the rest retained by the "Klaverns," or local chapters. Nobody gets a salary, including the imperial wizard, he said.

The hooded, masked night rider brandishing a fiery torch as he speeds along the countryside, frightening the wits out of people, is no more. Neither are the unauthorized burning of crosses. And anyone who does is in violation of the rules of the Klan, Reusch said.

RAPID RISER — Dale R. Reusch, of Lodi in Medina County, is dressed in the traditional garb of the Ku Klux Klan. He has been nominated by the Klan to run for president in 1976 and is the top choice to some day become imperial wizard of the KKK. (UPI)

MINUTEMEN

The Minutemen organization was organized in 1960, reportedly to resist the spread of communism in the United States by use of guerrilla tactics. [redacted] [redacted] of the Minutemen, was sentenced in October, 1970, for violations of the Federal Firearms Act. At the time of his arrest [redacted] was in possession of documents concerned with guerrilla warfare and other paraphernalia, including hand grenades, gun silencers, and a machine gun. [redacted] was released on parole during April, 1973, and in June, 1973, indicated he planned to revitalize the Minutemen into a "two-armed organization". Arm number one was to be utilized as a political front organization to sway elections and control local and state political structures. Arm number two was to be an underground guerrilla organization made up of "strike teams". These "strike teams" are to be under direct control of [redacted] and their existence is to be unknown to everyone, including Minutemen State Coordinators.

NATIONAL CAUCUS OF LABOR COMMITTEES

The National Caucus of Labor Committees (NCLC) is a violence-oriented, self-described "organization of revolutionary socialists" which was formed in 1969 with its stated aim to identify with American workers and orient them toward a socialist America. In its attempt to become the dominant Left group in the U.S., NCLC members have attacked attendees at meetings, demonstrations, conferences and conventions of various communist, Trotskyist and socialist organizations because it contended that it is necessary to use violence to achieve socialism. According to statements made by [redacted] NCLC will have gained state power in the U.S. by 1979 and by the year 2000 in the world. NCLC, which is headquartered in New York City, currently has chapters in more than 40 cities in this country and has affiliated chapters in five foreign countries.

NCLC utilizes its front group, the North American Unemployed and Welfare Rights Organization (NUWRO), to attract poor people to its philosophy; its youth group, the Revolutionary Youth Movement (RYM), to organize ghetto youths; and its political arm, the U.S. Labor Party (USLP), to conduct political campaigns aimed at acquainting the general public with the activities of NCLC.

NATIONAL KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN OF OHIO, INC. (NKKKK)

On October 8, 1964, [redacted] Secretary of State's Office, Columbus, State of Ohio, advised public records from this office indicate a charter was granted the NKKKK of Ohio on October 5, 1964, by the State of Ohio. The charter was filed under Certificate Number 10194, and the Corporation Number is 334111.

The purpose of the corporation is to operate as a realm organization within the State of Ohio and in accordance with the Constitution and laws of the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc., Atlanta, Georgia. Second, to promote patriotism toward the civil government, honorable peace among men and nations, love among ourselves; liberty, justice and patriotic association for the mutual benefit of all mankind.

The incorporation papers were signed by [redacted]

[redacted] Columbus, Ohio;

[redacted] Grove City, Ohio;

[redacted] Grove City, Ohio, are the corporation trustees.

On October 23, 1964, [redacted] State House, Secretary of State's Office, State of Ohio, advised that the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of Ohio, Inc.'s charter granted October 5, 1964, was revoked October 22, 1964, for the official reason that the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan Organization was on the U.S. Attorney General's subversive list.

[redacted] said the actual purpose for revocation of the charter was not because the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan is on the U.S. Attorney General's subversive list, but because it was felt the existence of a state granted charter would encourage the Klan to make the claim it was "state sanctioned" and, therefore, entirely legitimate.

In actuality the Ku Klux Klan and not the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan has been designated by the United States Attorney General pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

On December 17, 1974, [redacted] advised that a nationwide meeting of the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan (NKKKK), a characterization of which is attached in the Appendix, was held at the National Headquarters in Stone Mountain, Georgia, on December 14, 1974, from 7:00 pm until 11:00 pm. Attending this meeting were approximately 65 to 90 people which included NKKKK members and their guests. Source advised that this was a banquet type meeting which featured speeches from various Klan leaders.

Same source advised that the main attraction of this evening was the presentation of Ohio [redacted] as the 1976 NKKKK Presidential candidate. Source stated that [redacted] addressed the assembly for approximately 10 minutes concentrating on what he felt that his presidential campaign could do for the NKKKK. Source also added that [redacted] from Texas, who has been selected as [redacted] running mate, also spoke briefly at the meeting this evening.

[redacted] advised that an Imperial Board meeting of the NKKKK was held at the National Headquarters of the NKKKK in Stone Mountain,

United States to qualify for membership.

Same source also stated that Imperial Board informally agreed to support the presidential campaign of Ohio [redacted] but they did not come to an agreement on any nationwide tactics to be used to display their support. The board further did not come to any agreement on the name of the Klan party for the 1976 Presidential Election. Source stated that [redacted] wanted the name "Americans for America Party", while several other members insisted that the name be "American Patriotic Party".

Same source also advised that Ohio [redacted] [redacted] took the opportunity at the Imperial Board meeting to bring to the board's attention the conspiracy being carried out by Cleveland Klan Official [redacted] against the Ohio NKKKK. [redacted] presented a tape to the board which was the testimony from various Klansmen in the Cleveland area which resulted in the banishment of [redacted] and his fellow Cleveland Klansmen from the NKKKK.

On December 17, 1974 [redacted] advised that [redacted] [redacted] were interviewed and photographed on both December 14, 1974, and December 15, 1974, by many various news services and newspapers. Source stated that the most prominent interview was a television interview performed by the National Broadcasting Company in Atlanta, Georgia, segments of which interview were aired on the Today's Show.

On December 17, 1974 [redacted] advised that Imperial Wizard JAMES VENABLE met with [redacted] [redacted] after a conclusion of the formal Klan ceremonies. During this formal meeting, VENABLE emphatically reprimanded [redacted] for his childish phoning of reporters and newspapers concerning the presidential campaign and for divulging the decision of the Imperial Board to let Catholics become members. Klanman Loses Job

~~ALBANY, N.Y.~~ A man claiming to be the head of the Ku Klux Klan in the state has been suspended from his teaching job at an upstate prison following a probe into alleged Klan activity at the facility.

~~Earl Schoppemaker~~, a teacher for high school remedial diplomas, said Sunday: They can't get me out of the prison for being a member of the Klan — that's perfectly legal. So they have to look for something under the rug, and this is the best they could come up with."

A state corrections department spokesman said the suspension came after an inmate reportedly was asked to make Klan-inspired paintings. There were also several suspicious fires in the cells of black and Spanish-speaking prisoners, the spokesman said. The department said it would file charges in the painting incident.

Re Atlanta report of SA [redacted] dated 3/22/74.

As a reminder to all receiving offices, it is pointed out that Atlanta, as office of origin, must submit a report on March 15 of each year concerning NKKKK. Each auxiliary office having an active NKKKK chapter or members in its territory is requested to furnish Atlanta a succinct summary of NKKKK activities in its territory in insert form.

The material should be so organized that NKKKK activity will be reported separately by state. This will allow Atlanta to arrange NKKKK activity by state and permit a more comprehensive report. Referenced report of 3/22/74, was submitted in accordance with Bureau instructions and by referring to it, auxiliary offices may get a clearer picture of the manner in which inserts should be furnished to Atlanta.

In order to facilitate the handling of this information, Atlanta requests that each office furnish it with only one copy of its insert with pages unnumbered and suitable for xeroxing. Each office should also furnish Atlanta, for the inclusion in the Administrative

DETAILS:

This investigation is based on information which indicates that the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan (NKKKK) is engaged in activities which could involve a violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 241 (Conspiracy Against Rights of Citizens); Section 245 (Federally Protected Activities); Civil Rights Act of 1968; or related Civil Rights Statutes.

A characterization of the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan (NKKKK) is attached as an appendix to this report.

Sources whose identities are concealed herein have furnished reliable information in the past except where otherwise noted.

CE 157-193

I. IDENTITY OF ORGANIZATION

On January 11, 1974, [redacted] advised the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan (NKKKK) Headquarters in North Carolina as of January 1, 1974, was located in Winston-Salem, North Carolina.

On July 26, 1974, [redacted] was interviewed by Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) at which time [redacted] volunteered the information that he was the [redacted] of the NKKKK in North Carolina. [redacted] advised he resides at [redacted] Winston-Salem, North Carolina, telephone number [redacted].

On December 16, 1974, [redacted] was reinterviewed by Special Agents of the FBI at which time [redacted] advised he had resigned his position as [redacted] of the NKKKK because of the expense involved in attending meetings in South Carolina and Georgia and due to his lack of interest in the activities of NKKKK.

II. CHARTER DATA

On September 23, 1974, contact was had with the Secretary of State's Office, State of North Carolina, Raleigh, North Carolina, at which time it was advised by an officer of the Secretary of State's Office that the NKKKK is not known to be chartered in North Carolina.

III. IDENTITIES OF PRINCIPAL OFFICERS

On January 11, 1974, [redacted] advised that [redacted] Burlington, North Carolina, telephone number [redacted] was contacted on January 1, 1974, by a representative of the NKKKK and was advised that he was being appointed the [redacted] for the NKKKK in North Carolina. [redacted] for the NKKKK, [redacted] was furnished with two blank charters. [redacted] was heard to say at that time there were no Klaverns of the NKKKK in North Carolina, but he expected he could develop two Klaverns in North Carolina.

On May 7, 1974, [redacted] related that on April 28, 1974, there was a meeting of the NKKKK Klan leaders and Klansmen at Stone Mountain, Georgia. At that time, Imperial Wizard JAMES VENABLE announced he was appointing [redacted] [redacted] of the NKKKK in North Carolina. When [redacted] was interviewed by FBI Agents on July 26, 1974, at Winston-Salem, North Carolina, [redacted] volunteered information that he was the current [redacted] of North Carolina for the NKKKK. During the interview, [redacted] said he had unofficially resigned approximately two weeks ago from the NKKKK as he did not have time for its activities.

[redacted] stated that he formerly was a member of the United Klans of America, Incorporated, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan (UKA), having been a member of Winston-Salem Klavern Number 88 of the UKA. [redacted] said he had been rejected by the UKA as he had failed a polygraph examination given by the UKA.

A characterization of the United Klans of America, Incorporated, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan (UKA) is attached as an appendix to this report.

On December 16, 1974, [redacted] was reinterviewed by Special Agents of the FBI at which time he advised he had resigned his position as [redacted] of the NKKKK because of the expense involved in attending meetings in South Carolina and Georgia and due to his lack of interest in the activities of NKKKK.

IV. MEMBERSHIP INFORMATION

On November 26, 1973, [redacted] advised the Hickory Klavern of NKKKK then had approximately twenty members.

On November 12, 1974, [redacted] related a Klavern of the NKKKK, known as the Derita Klavern of the NKKKK, Derita, North Carolina, a suburb of Charlotte, North Carolina, had four members.

No other information has been received during the course of investigation of activities of the NKKKK in North Carolina concerning other members of the NKKKK in the State of North Carolina.

V. OBJECTIVES

On November 26, 1973, [redacted] indicated that the NKKKK in North Carolina follows the same objectives as the National Headquarters of the NKKKK.

The NKKKK was chartered in DeKalb County, Georgia, in November, 1963. In a statement of its program issued in December, 1963, from the Headquarters of the NKKKK, it was indicated that the NKKKK was anti-Negro, anti-Jewish, anti-Catholic, and anti-foreign born.

CE 157-193

VI. SUMMARY OF PERTINENT ACTIVITIES

No information has been received concerning acts of violence or other illegal activities by the NKKKK in North Carolina. There has been no information concerning acquisition or stockpiling of arms or training and recruiting activities in North Carolina during this period.

Information concerning meetings held by Klaverns of the NKKKK, both active and inactive, in the State of North Carolina are set forth elsewhere in this report. There have been no known State meetings of the NKKKK held in North Carolina.

A. Efforts to Form a Klavern of NKKKK in the Gaston County, North Carolina, area

On September 20, 1971, [redacted] advised that on September 4, 1971, [redacted] of Charlotte, North Carolina, said he attended the NKKKK Rally at Stone Mountain, Georgia, on September 4, 1971.

[redacted] On April 10, 1973, [redacted] stated that [redacted] [redacted] has been known to be active in various Klan organizations in the Charlotte, North Carolina, area for at least the past eight years. [redacted] advised [redacted] resides at [redacted] North Carolina.

On March 6, 1972, [redacted] advised that on February 27, 1972, a member of the UKA in Gaston County, North Carolina, had recently changed his affiliation and joined the NKKKK in Gaston County, which met at Belmont, North Carolina, with two other members.

On June 14, 1972, [redacted] related that, during the past week [redacted] a member of the NKKKK group meeting at Belmont, North Carolina, said he received literature from the NKKKK in Georgia. [redacted] indicated that he had not taken any action to get a NKKKK Klavern started in Belmont.

On February 21, 1973, [redacted] advised it was obvious to him that [redacted] had failed to develop a Klavern of the NKKKK in Belmont, North Carolina, or in the Gaston County area.

CE 157-193

B. Efforts to Form a Klavern of NKKKK
in Derita, North Carolina

On November 20, 1974, [redacted] related that four persons had recently started a Klavern of the NKKKK in Derita, North Carolina, near Charlotte, North Carolina. Two of the persons in the Derita Klavern traveled to Tucker, Georgia, on October 31, 1974, to see Imperial Wizard JAMES VENABLE, and VENABLE agreed to support the Klavern and swear in officers once officers of the group were chosen.

[redacted] advised the Derita Klavern would be known as the "Invincible Church of Jesus Christ" as one of the members was an ordained minister.

C. Efforts to Form a Klavern of NKKKK
in Hickory, North Carolina

On September 22, 1972, information was received from [redacted] that [redacted] Hickory, North Carolina, then had a NKKKK Klavern in Hickory, North Carolina. The members of the Hickory Klavern had formerly been organized as a UKA Klavern, and following that had a Klavern that was associated with the North Carolina Knights of the Ku Klux Klan (NCKKKK) before associating with the NKKKK.

A characterization of the North Carolina Knights of the Ku Klux Klan (NCKKKK) is attached as an appendix to this report.

On September 10, 1973, [redacted] advised that on September 9, 1973, there was a meeting of individuals at Hickory, North Carolina, concerning the formation of a Klavern of the NKKKK in Hickory, North Carolina. Present was [redacted] Hickory, North Carolina.

[redacted] advised [redacted] explained at the meeting that he and former Klan members of the NCKKKK were breaking away from the NCKKKK and wanted to be chartered in the NKKKK. [redacted] indicated he had been to the National Rally of the NKKKK at Stone Mountain, Georgia, on September 1, 1973.

On September 10, 1973, [redacted] advised a NKKKK Rally was held at Stone Mountain, Georgia, near the home of Imperial Wizard JAMES VENABLE. Present was [redacted] of Hickory, North Carolina, who had formed a Klavern of NKKKK in Hickory, North Carolina.

CE 157-193

On November 26, 1973, [redacted] advised that [redacted] of the Hickory Klavern of the NKKKK.

On November 26, 1973, [redacted] related that the NKKKK Hickory Klavern meets on Tuesday nights in a cement block building [redacted]
[redacted] Hickory, North Carolina, telephone number [redacted]

On May 29, 1974, [redacted] advised that the NKKKK in North Carolina is no longer active in the Hickory, North Carolina, area. [redacted] advised that [redacted] formerly known as [redacted] of the Hickory, North Carolina, Klavern of NKKKK, was not known to be engaged in NKKKK activity at that time.

D. Information Concerning the Winston-Salem, North Carolina, Klavern of NKKKK and Activities of [redacted]
[redacted] NKKKK, Winston-Salem,
North Carolina

On October 22, 1973, [redacted] advised a Klavern of the NKKKK had been organized in Winston-Salem, North Carolina, under the leadership of [redacted]

On January 24, 1974, [redacted] advised Imperial Wizard JAMES VENABLE, NKKKK, Stone Mountain, Georgia, on January 11, 1974, asked the Imperial Kleagle of South Carolina if the Imperial Kleagle had anyone in mind who he would like to have appointed as Grand Dragon of North Carolina. At that time, the Imperial Kleagle of South Carolina stated that North Carolina had only one Kleagle and one Klavern and the South Carolina Imperial Kleagle stated that he did not know anyone in North Carolina who he would like to see appointed Grand Dragon in North Carolina.

On May 4, 1974, [redacted] advised that at a NKKKK Rally held on May 4, 1974, six miles outside of Monroe, Georgia, the NKKKK [redacted] for North Carolina, [redacted] was a speaker.

On July 1, 1974, [redacted] advised the NKKKK, Realm of South Carolina, held a public meeting on June 28-29, 1974, followed by a cross burning at the Greenville-Pickens Speedway,

CE 157-193

Greenville, South Carolina. [redacted]
the North Carolina NKKKK reportedly was one of the speakers.

[redacted] advised that the speeches at the rally were anti-Negro, anti-Jewish, and anti-Communist, and reflected an effort to use the Bible to justify the aims of the NKKKK.

On October 4, 1974, [redacted] who is personally acquainted with [redacted] and who has knowledge of certain Klan activities in the Winston-Salem, North Carolina, area, advised that there is no Klavern of NKKKK in the Winston-Salem area being led by [redacted] or by anyone else to his knowledge.

VII. FINANCES, PUBLICATIONS, AND FOREIGN INFLUENCES

No information has been receiving concerning finances, publications or foreign influences of NKKKK in North Carolina.

VIII. CONNECTIONS WITH OTHER EXTREMIST, SUBVERSIVE OR OTHER REVOLUTIONARY GROUPS

On September 1, 1971, [redacted] advised that on August 30, 1971, a letter was read at a meeting of the UKA Klavern known as Vance Klavern Number 47, Henderson, North Carolina, which was an invitation to attend a NKKKK Rally scheduled for September 4, 1971, at Stone Mountain, Georgia. It was not known if members of the Vance County Klavern attended the NKKKK function.

On May 15, 1972, [redacted] advised that on April 23, 1972, at a regular closed meeting of the UKA Klavern in Mount Holly, North Carolina, two members of the UKA Chapter had been invited to attend a meeting of the NKKKK to be held at the home of [redacted] Belmont, North Carolina, on April 16, 1972.

On July 11, 1972, [redacted] advised the NCKKKK held a Rally in North Belmont, North Carolina, on Saturday, June 24, 1972. Four individuals representing the NKKKK, including [redacted] attended the Rally.

On February 23, 1973, [redacted] advised that on February 22, 1973, four members of the UKA, Mount Holly Klavern, met with [redacted] at a restaurant in Charlotte, North Carolina, during which meeting [redacted] talked about what a great organization the NKKKK was.

CE 157-193

IX. MISCELLANEOUS

On March 28, 1973, [redacted] advised that the State of North Carolina had one member on the Advisory Committee of the NKKKK, which Committee met at its headquarters in Stone Mountain, Georgia. [redacted] did not know the name of the member. The purpose of the Committee, headed by Imperial Wizard JAMES R. VENABLE, Stone Mountain, Georgia, was to formulate a program of direction so that all of the National Klan Units would be pulling in one direction.

II. CHARTER INFORMATION

The National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan (NKKKK) was granted a charter in the State of Georgia in 1963 as a "patriotic, secret, social and benevolent order." The NKKKK, (see appendix) a consolidation of various Klans, continues to be anti-Negro, anti-Jewish, anti-Catholic, and anti-foreign born.

The National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan is not chartered or incorporated. Although Ohio [redacted] [redacted] has considered incorporating the Ohio Klan, he never did for more than one reason. In 1972, Secretary of the State of Ohio, [redacted] refused to charter the Ohio NKKKK because of the offensive character of the title, "Ku Klux Klan."

IV. MEMBERSHIP

There are currently only about 25 active members in the Ohio NKKKK under the leadership of [ ]. The Klan has numerous non-member supporters, all of whom do not take any active part in the organization.

[ ] has dissolved the Cleveland Klavern of the Ohio NKKKK and he only has a couple of supporters remaining in that area.

[ ] on December 13, 1974)

V. POLICIES AND OBJECTIVES STATED BY THE KLAN

Primary Objectives

1. The establishment of an official and regular publication in newspaper form for the purposes of educating the uninformed masses of the global conspiracy; obtaining revenue from the sales of subscriptions, etc.; providing a medium for the unification of all Klan groups throughout the United States through a regular activity report column focusing on the efforts of Klan groups throughout the United States. This project will be a major breakthrough for the progress of the Ohio NKKKK and require the support of all members.

2. The establishment of an associate status with the Ohio NKKKK for the purpose of obtaining regular contributions from individuals who do not see it proper for themselves to become a member, but would like to be able to certify their having supported the Ohio NKKKK. An Official Supporter card will be issued to such individuals for an established minimum contribution. The Official Supporter card will bear an expiration date just as the membership card does, in order to secure a regular annual or semi-annual contribution. The supportership program has worked well in the past for other Patriotic, Christian organizations and often results in the Official Supporter becoming a Member of the organization.

3. The implementation of an educational program directed to members of the Ohio NKKKK for the benefit of having a well-informed organization and enabling its members, therefore, to effectively spread the Truth and Warn the public of the global conspiracy; to reinforce the Christian idealism of the Order; to inform the members of the implements and materials necessary to defend our Race and Survive during the struggle to come.

4. The implementation of a security system and/or organization within the structure of the Ohio NKKKK to protect the Order from subversion, infiltration, and attack from within and without.

5. The manufacture and sale of NKKKK souvenirs for the purposes of obtaining badly needed revenue.

Policies

1. A greater current of communication must be established between the State Office and the Officers of the Ohio NKKKK. There has been a great deficiency of communication between these levels in the past and has had a great deal to do with any lack of activism and membership the Ohio NKKKK has suffered. Greater correspondence and communication between the Office and the Field levels of the Order will induce a better relationship among them, and will add greatly to the overall efficiency of the Ohio NKKKK.

2. A sense of responsibility to the growth and progress of the Ohio NKKKK, which is compelled by a dedication to Jesus Christ, Race and Country, should be felt by every member of the Order. The membership of the Ohio NKKKK should be composed of Reliable and Responsible individuals. If this criterion is used, we will be able to avoid many of the problems we have experienced in the past.

3. We must now begin to build our Order from within, to strengthen the structure and composition of the Ohio NKKKK. In the past we have dedicated the greater portion of our efforts to propagating the truth and attempting to attain support from the Caucasian majority of this nation. The time table of our enemy now constrains us to redirect our efforts to the establishment of an Indestructible, Revolutionary Order dedicated to the redemption of our Christian Culture and the preservation of our Race.

4. A greater sense of true Brotherhood, and a sense of mutual understanding must be maintained by the members of the Ohio NKKKK. We are a fraternity of Christians as much as we are a Revolutionary Order. If we consider one another as a Brother, which is the foundation of Klancraft, friction will be kept to the absolute minimum, allowing the Order to operate on the highest level of efficiency. "Be kindly affectioned one to another with brotherly love, in honor preferring one another." Romans 12:10

5. The success of the Ohio NKKKK will depend on the ability it has to maintain the Secrecy of its composition and activities. This is why our enemy fears us and seeks to divide and subvert us, for the very reason that we are a secret organization. Every member of the Order must perform their utmost to make certain that the Secrecy and confidential nature of the Ohio NKKKK is not violated.

[redacted] on August 1, 1974)

The stated objectives of the Ohio NKKKK are to launch a nationwide 1976 Presidential campaign for [redacted] as its candidate. The Ohio Klan seeks to establish the "America for Americans Party" in Stone Mountain, Georgia, December 15, 1974, at a National Officers Meeting there. The overt objective of the Ohio Klan since [redacted] has become its head is to provide representation for the middle class Caucasian majority of the United States. Through news coverage of [redacted] campaign by the general media, [redacted] hopes to attract people to the relatively small ranks of the Ohio NKKKK and the NKKKK throughout the country. [redacted] also hopes that the campaign will bring additional financing to his organization.

[redacted] on December 13, 1974)

CV 157-5031

VI. ACTIVITY

A. Acts of Violence, Terrorism, and Intimidation

[redacted] and the leadership of the Ohio NKKKK have never directed the organization or any of its members towards acts of violence, terrorism, or intimidation, nor have any Ohio Klan officers made pertinent statements advocating such activities. [redacted] has been very cautious, particularly after the 1974 Ohio Revised Criminal Code went into effect.

[redacted] on December 13, 1974)

B. Recruiting Activities

During 1974 the Ohio NKKKK has pursued no formal recruitment drives or membership rallies at any of its activities. Recruitment has only been achieved through word of mouth by current members.

[redacted] on December 13, 1974)

C. Number of Meetings or Rallies Held

During 1974 the Ohio NKKKK held no public meetings or rallies in the state of Ohio. However, about 15 private meetings were held among Klan officials during the year, as well as attendance at four out-of-state functions attended by [redacted] and several of his constituents.

[redacted] on December 13, 1974)

NATIONAL STATES RIGHTS PARTY

The National States Rights Party (NSRP), formerly known as the United White Party, was organized in 1957 in Knoxville, Tennessee. The NSRP's official party line promotes hatred against Jews, Negroes, Communists and certain law enforcement agencies. NSRP National Chairman J. B. Stoner has publicly advocated killing or deporting Jews; deportation of Negroes; "doing away with FBI pimps"; and repeal of all civil rights laws. The NSRP carries out its line of hatred through the use of propaganda media and provocative demonstrations.
